General Remarks In all the villages of the Great Valley with the exception of those which formed a portion of the reservation, the houses were classified and appraised in 1891. The actual values in this Report are according to survey made by Mr. A. S. Cook in 1891 with rates of appraisement shown in this report. The new and old rates by Mr. Rankins in 1898 on the Good lands - these rates have invariably been applied to houses which have reverted to G.O.B. in lapse since the reservation. Mr. Rankins rates were never adopted either for Good or Bad lands.

Four Copies

Copy of Plea from Sthandar Beg, dated

His appeal to the Sipka Beg dated 18th December 1861. May 1862.

Both these Plaintiffs claim joint registration with Gazaffar Beg as the legal sons of the late Kartan Beg by Sipka wives.

The claims were referred for investigation before the Tahsildar, who has reported at length on the subject, 1862 his Begs dated 11th March 1862. 1865.

Certain Prains in No. 14 in this Village (Mangaid) were purchased of Kartan Beg, the father of the present parties long ago. Then the depredations of the Chitpawans, the lands so purchased appear to have been injured first by Kartan Beg - next by his wife Thadri Beg, and his eldest son, Gaffar Beg next, the son of the last, Khatu Khan and next & most recently by Gazaffar Beg conjointly with Kanohi Beg, as each elder member of the family retired from the Army, he appears to have come into the possession of the ancestral property. To place all the pieces will show that the contending parties are related as brothers by different mothers. Kartan Beg, Khander Beg, and then have been retired from the Army, and on returning home, for their ancestral rights, divided them. Gazaffar Beg on the ground first that Khander Beg is not a legitimate son of Kartan Beg & secondly that Kartan Beg & Khander Beg (brothers) gave up their right to a share of the Prain to him & a conveyance executed in Kellore more than 12 years ago & thirdly, as applicable to the claims of both that they have had no boys or sons. Khatai Beg, Chief of Khatu, appeared in 1852, Gazaffar Beg admitted that the fields of both the claimants to a share of the Prain & divide up them their respective claims on their return to Khatu. This Gazaffar made appeared before the Tahsildar, Chitpawans, he now denies declaring that it was a threat to divide & violence - an undue & wholly incredible. There has been no formal registration of the Prains in the name of the present family, & the simple fact of the occupation of the Prains by Gazaffar Beg in the absence of the present claimants is not sufficient to bar the title of the latter & to be recognized as joint owners. Their names will in accordance be registered along with that of Gazaffar Beg for his own having the actual partition & be enforced by the proper authorities.

This case is being referred to the Sthandar Beg, dated 18th Dec 1861.
Case 42-3-1862-65.

Prain Com missioner.
