Kuppa Gounder & Thatha Gounder were in enjoyment. It is clear that they came into possession of the land some time between 1236 & 1265. The decree of the Chittur Southern Court dated 1836 filed by Kistna Rao shows that though one Papayya was in possession Seethamma had right to the land.

On 18th March 1862 Kuppa Gounder & his son Munia Gounder executed a deed admitting the title of Subbayya (grandson of Seethamma) to the land. On the report of the late Tahsildar the Head Sub Collector in 1866 transferred the right to said Subbayya.

Inst. 1. That Thatha Gounder was dismissed from the office of Munegar & as he subsequently gave up his portion of the land Subbayya came in possession.

As to the other portion of land in the possession of the said Kuppa Gounder & his son were sued in the Chittur Civil Court on 1871 by Kistna Rao in accordance with the terms of the Rappinama filed by the latter in the said suit the Kistna Rao is in possession. He has been duly certificated filed by Kistna Rao is forwarded the Sub Collector of [illegible] in that title deed may be granted to Kistna Rao.

Kistna Rao the present claimant states that after the death of the Inamdar Eramikayamma Kuppa Gounder and Thatha Gounder usurped the claim of his widow Seethamma but he cant say when & for what reason they came in possession of the Inam.

In 1236 it was stated that Eramikayamma was enjoying the Inam. The accounts of F. 1258 show that Kuppa Gounder & Thatha Gounder were in enjoyment.
