There are two adoptive mothers Latchammal & Kuppammal of the present incumbent who claim for a share in the Inam which is now entirely in the enjoyment of the latter since 1853 i.e. for 7 years. It appears from the records hereunder detailed, that the claimants entered into an agreement or a Razinama relinquishing their right in toto to this Inam & others in other Villages as well as the Pattat lands & the Maniyam Mirasi in them for a consideration of the service Inams Pattat lands of Pudupet Village in the Pallikonda Taluq. This document has been confirmed by the Revenue authorities and the Bd of Rev have likewise refused interference in a complaint instituted by the claimants seeking for the cancelment of the adoption in view to obtaining possession of the Inam & the claim now preferred therefore is inadmissible by this Dept. The records (authenticated copies of which were produced by the present holder) are

1. Tahsildar's letter to Alanjikuppam & Villages dated 17 Augt 1830 No 959
2. Hd Asst Collector's letter dated 30 Novr 1853 No 350
