his present appearance as if it has been given for the sake of teaching Vedas - he grants a possession - and I do not think that he ~~will~~ was anxious for the spread and documents of a religion which is own personal riches in a modern view - or eradicate - which was evidently given for the support of the faith -

with the same view for particular specification - records - his own notion - for the better validity of the faith -

His son also is of the same descent as that in the preceding case - It was situated in the first part of the family of the man in 1919 - who in their turn made it a gift to the present holder's family

His is called Paramasasthi son - as in the preceding case - it is in reality dealt with as one of "Personal" - so I will treat it as such - I interpret it to be a complete asset of the family as it has been given by the family to the present holder

Case "Goolam Ally Rakhee"
 - joint claims a joint management of the sea - On the production of the Decree of 1829 Court's decree on the subject of the claims of the sea - against Goolam Ally Rakhee Mahomed Ali & Co. it appears that the Complaint had no right to claim to share in the latter. That now in the case of the sea - the Decree of 1829 must of the mosque - the Decree is dated 20th Nov 1822 - known to Complaint to state that the Decree are not equal in person - but both say the latter in Court can decide the matter - & do as needful -

Statement Having the Same in the Village of Agaramcheri, Taluk of Palakkada. 23 November 1860.

[illegible]

None of the Sums of their Pollage are omitted in the Register nor are any of the Sums (which having by reason of death, Absence, poverty, or other Causes been abandoned) should more properly become the Property of Government in default of their claiming timely or unlawfully transferred by false sale or other transaction Connected for the purpose.
