Document A intimates the registry of the Inam in the name of Lakshmana Chari (in F. 1255) in both villages -

Document B conveys permission to the Inamdar to carry away the produce of his field -

These Inamdars owned originally K. 4-8-0 of Inam land in Vettuvanam as in F. 1215 in Col: 14;- and K. 1. in Tottalam as in the same column - making a total of 5-8-0 - Of which the whole in the latter village was taken up by the public road - and only K A C 0-13-0 in the former village - In compensation, K 2-13-8 was given in this village in 1850 - as appears from the account (Adangal) of F. 1269 - which comes - according to Paymash account - to 2-13-0 as detailed in Col: 4 - All this is corroborated by document C in Col: 12 - produced -
