In spite of the endeavours of the Monigar (Parasarama Ayyar) to make the matter hidden, an examination of the accounts elicited the following facts connected with the case — the Monigar is the brother of the present holder's brother-in-law.

On the death of the original holder Subbavadhani, his Daughter's son Narayana Sastri inherited the Inam — After the demise of the latter, × without leaving an heir, the original holder's Daughter-in-law Achiammal [illegible] the only one that survived the family — enjoyed the Inam — After her, her sister's son the present holder took possession of the Inam which he [illegible] years [illegible] — the local authorities do not seem to have taken any notice of it — in detriment to the interest of Govt. — [illegible], the Inam was according to the practice of the district, be resumed, or the present holder allowed to enjoy it for life only — As life tenures are now converted into freeholds by the imposition of half assesst, this [illegible] likewise be treated —

The Inamdar having appealed against this decision it has been discovered that the Inam was confirmed to the present holder by an order of the Subcollector dated 9th Novr 1838 as being the sister's son and foster son of the last holder Achiammal a daughter-in-law of the original family and as being a member of a collateral branch of the original family — The alienation having thus been made and confirmed long prior to the rules of 1858, the Inam can be confirmed on the lower rate of ⅛th quitrent or Rs 1–8. The Inamdar was not present in the original enquiry.
