Sheet No. 169

Granted for the personal benefit of the laborer	Hence tiny house	Not house	None
---	------------------------	--------------	------

[illegible]

The $\frac{1}{2}$ share of the Sachinchee allowance and $\frac{1}{2}$ share of the Richardson property stood in the General account in the name of Pannachewee in Column 11. But only $\frac{1}{4}$ of this and — the Richardson property belongs to himself, the remaining $\frac{1}{2}$ share having come to his enjoyment only by mortgage by Yenditama father 5 or 6 years ago the mortgage has now redeemed by the heirs of the original grantee. The only $\frac{1}{4}$ share and the $\frac{1}{2}$ share of Richardson is now therefore in the enjoyment of Pannachewee's heirs as shown in Col. 11. The grant being of an older date than 25 years it is recommended that it be confirmed in the names of all the seven shareholders in Col. 16 as prayed for by them. I recommend that $\frac{1}{2}$ quit rent be fixed on the Savon and the allotment of Richardson be considered with the rest of the Yuttee in the Ayashami.

This is the 1/2 share referred to above and has been received by Annachasthy from the Amachandras heirs. It is now in the hands of the original grantee and I therefore recommend that it be confirmed to Annachasthy on a quitrent of one eighth to which he agrees. The allotment of a khanda and in this case will as in the case above have to be considered with the rest of the Agraharam.

The image shows a page from a handwritten ledger or account book, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The page is filled with dense, handwritten entries in a cursive script, organized into columns and rows. The entries appear to be financial or administrative records, possibly related to a business or estate. The handwriting is somewhat faded and the ink is dark, typical of old documents. The page is numbered '16' in the top right corner. There are several large, bold, handwritten numbers and letters scattered throughout the page, which might be section markers or page numbers. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, historical document.
