[illegible] Creek Indians [illegible] of Sobieski Creek they [illegible]
[illegible] in the general line They address their claims on the ground that they are Sobieski Creek Indians being the grandsons of his brother Ben Smith. Ignoring the objection does not seem to be of any value since November 9th and Sobieski made a division among themselves during this life time, and each took and enjoyed his share separately. I would therefore recommend this claim to be confirmed in the names of Sobieski and Sobieski subject to a quit rent of one eighth.

Hereditary Agt. Original Grant & other documents not known to have been produced.

The Enam appears in the public accounts as will be shown in Col. No. 4-18.

Shanmugam of Kottapatty Pymash in the Rayadroog Pymash Chavadi Report.

In the subsequent accounts Venkatachalam

Ramalingam aged 35 Hereditary Taluk

I Brother Ananda Chandra aged 60

II Nephew of Shanmugam aged 30 Son of Venkatachalam

III Son Venkatachalam aged 5

IV Son aged 30

Connected with the Pymash Holder

As the Enam is of an older date than 50 years and as there is every prospect of the family being continued, I recommend that the Shanmugam be confirmed in the name of the present holder Ramalingam with an optional quit rent of one eighth

The Enam was at the Pymash held by Shanmugam and at his death without issue it passed to his brother Venkatachalam and at his death it passed to his two sons Venkatachalam & Ramalingam and on Venkatachalam's death without issue the whole Enam is enjoyed by Ramalingam.

Soondaramal the vakeel of Venkatachalam (Vide Col 17) is said to be under Ramalingam's protection

The Statement having been presented within the prescribed time the attested counterpart will be returned.
