Note

One Venkatachella Ayyan of Nattar agraharam claims the Inam on the ground that Mangammal was his uncle's widow & was not authorized to sell the Inam & that the alleged sale was therefore illegal. The transaction took place in 1847 or 48 & has been recognised by the Collr at the time. The long possession by the purchaser cannot be disturbed & the Claimant is referred to the ordinary Courts for redress.

measuring acres 3·91
The field No. 21 is said to be unfit for cultivation & is therefore relinquished. Although the 2 Dry fields bear same No., yet they are not situated in the same locality & one is more than half a mile distant from the other & in the Revenue Accts they are entered as 2 distinct fields but under one No.

I therefore recommend that the relinquished field may be resumed & the remaining 2 fields confirmed to the parties in Col. 16, subject to a Quit Rent of 1/8th which they agree to pay with the proportionate Jodi of Rs 7-6-7 or in all Rs 9-
