Register of the Sarva Inam Village of Bagstandkere No 543 in the Daramapuri Taluk

There is a Sarva Inam village included in the original grant of the ~~[illegible]~~ called [illegible]
Badapanahalli villages — This village is enjoyed in 6 Kanes or 24 Vrittis
The tank on which the wet depended on cultivation breached in 1818 — It has never been repaired — but its place has been substituted by wells & by means the whole of the wet area has been kept up under cultivation —

Original Ayakat —

Ayakat	96·357	96·96
Deduct unarable	69·9	67·23
Dry arable area		27·73	~~48-9-11~~ 48-9-10
Cultivation	Particulars
Dry	9·95		6-6-8
Wet	17·78		42-3-2
	27·73		48-9-10

Beriz according to the records of the Ayakat & the valuation of the Beriz

The Ayakatdars state the Beriz at 45 Rs — In Fusly the whole arable area was cultivated — In 1235 the Beriz was stated at 30-7-9 — But as the whole Ayakat has been kept up under cultivation, I would fix the ~~[illegible]~~ Beriz of the village at the Ayakat value Rs 48-9-10.

The enjoyments of several individuals are in detail just as in the Register of Badapanahalli & Sumbalappa. I have therefore recorded here merely the names of the principal enjoyers. The Vritti values in this village are almost equal to each other, in which ~~So~~ No 1620 so that the ~~one~~ sums of Quit Rent on ~~one~~ any 2 Vrittis will also be the same. Therefore charge the Quit Rent on the ~~whole village in each~~ & marked the proportion of Quit Rent each individual will have to pay. The Beriz proposed for the village is Rs 48-9-10
