The Karnam states that the ½ share was purchased by one Nagana of Gumlapalli in Sadharana or 1859 in absence of claim & that the [illegible] of his own having escaped the Inam Register. He seems to have a wife which appears from the ...
[illegible] 2 of witnesses examined in the village, Nava & brother [illegible] Kuntappa [illegible] Rama Bala & Chinna Bala & [illegible] Chenna Bala that the Inam has been all along in the possession of Sidda & Nagadu & they say that the [illegible] Nagana or anybody enjoying the same. On this evidence I confirm the 2d ½ the title of the Inamdar. The [illegible] statement seems therefore untrue. If Nagana's heirs have any claim they can establish their right in the Civil Court. [illegible] of Nagana's people have appeared.
