

This is a jagher village granted by the British Government to an old attacked servant of theirs. The jagher consists of the Kusta karabale, & the Karabale, Chikka karabale, Kinnamulaiman & Tappanool pillayam
The best part of the village water is washed in the Tappale. The rest is supplied by a tank, which is kept up in repair at the cost of the jagher owner. The soil is generally of an average quality.
