Regio 27

Handwritten notes and signatures at the top of the page, including names like "Bagnan", "Chenna", "Baddama", and "Liddama".

Handwritten notes on the right side, including "7/4/62" and "1831".

In Roudra - a sum of 2 Pagodas credited to the Ach.

In Prayagpatti, it is not found -

In Darnak, a collection of 16 Pagodas was credited to the Ach.

On the Saurashtra side a letter of 1000 Rupees or more by Pottan Chudappa Saib, of Jayasing, to the Sates of Kolaba or Nay, by Kunda Prabhadra Saib of Loredhwa son of Jayasing, was produced in the dispute of 1791. (This is recorded in the Record.)

The Pottan & Jayasingh filed a Proghattha in favor of the Sates in 1791. Nay is preserved in the Court of 1791, wherein that the Sates was engaged as Saurashtra to 1791, when the Pottan renewed the grant on a long.

In 1795, the Pottan renewed the grant, but the Pottan retained it at once & advised the Pottan to bring forward claims to the village, if he had any. No formal sheets of paper have been taken by the Pottan in that direction. A rough sketch of 1795 is found in the Sates' Daftar - It records the claims of the Pottan, but no decision was passed.

The grant is certainly and some as indicated by the documents produced in 1791, but it seems to have been granted originally for some reason - No compromise at all doubt,
