This engine was jaffed in Fe 1964 for the failure of the Lassarundashire to have executed the repairs. The tank breached since there was a large outlay to the extent of 1300 Rs. was made for its repairs. The last time the repairs were made was a year and a half back. This tank irrigates the wet ayakhat in the northern village viz. $\frac{238-15-10}{17-4-9}$ in an ayakhat of $\frac{176-4-11}{154-4-11}$ in the village of Manku-Chapatti;
 an ayakhat of $\frac{176-4-11}{154-4-11}$ Total $\frac{154-4-11}{154-4-11}$

Thus the tanks of this aghrahar irrigate aghrahar land to the extent of 239—and circae land in the neighbouring village } 95-5-1 to the extent of } 454-5-1

The Rasba tank which is the most important one is
