Not known	The name of Perandapalli Naraiappen appears in the Pymaishee accounts of Fusli 1213.	Perundapalli Naraiappen whose name is also entered in the old Inam accounts prepared in Fusli 1229 as the original grantee.	Thimmarayappen Age 25.	Nandimangalam	Great grandson of the younger brother of the original grantee.	Mother 1 Wife 1 2	"	This Inam is of an older date than 50 years, but has been in the enjoyment of mortgagees for many years past. The party in the 16th Column is a descendant of the original grantee and claims the Inam. The mortgagees have no objection to its being registered in his name.

Under these circumstances, it is recommended that the Inam be confirmed to the party in the 16th Column at ⅛ Quit Rent Annas (8) Eight, which has been agreed to.

It was placed under attachment in consequence of the non attendance of the Inamdar before the Inams Deputy Collector, but he having filed his application within the prescribed time of one year, the attachment should be released.
