Handwritten document with multiple columns of text, including names, dates, and numerical entries. The text is written in a cursive script, likely from the 19th century. The document appears to be a record or ledger, possibly related to land or property transactions. Key elements include:

- Columns: The document is organized into several vertical columns. The leftmost column contains dates and times (e.g., "1848", "1849", "1850"). The middle columns contain names and titles (e.g., "Rajah", "Rajah's", "Rajah's"). The rightmost column contains numerical entries (e.g., "1848", "1849", "1850").
- Text: The text is written in a cursive script, likely from the 19th century. It includes names, titles, and numerical entries. The text is organized into several vertical columns.
- Annotations: There are several annotations and notes written in the margins and between the columns. These include phrases like "The Rajah is in the enjoyment of the Rajah's", "The Rajah is in the enjoyment of the Rajah's", and "The Rajah is in the enjoyment of the Rajah's".
- Signatures: There are several signatures and initials scattered throughout the document, including "Rajah", "Rajah's", and "Rajah's".
