Rgr. No. 163 Register of Inams in the village of Badè Calaru (or Shevaroy) in the Pistagapuri Taluq, Salem District.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
Nos.	Name of Inamdar.	Extent of Inam.	Rent payable to Government.			Name of Inam.	Name of Village.	Taluq.	Name of Zillah.	Nature of Inam.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar or by others.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.	Whether Inam is held by the Inamdar for life or in perpetuity.
		Gunta's	Cents.
1	Rissaldar Ruanee Rajah Sahib Nanjir	133	37½	13.5.-	74-10-0	Not known	Ruanee or Inam free.	Ditto.	Ditto.	Not known.	The Ruanee is reported by the accounts to be under date more than 50 years.	Granted in Shah.	No entry of the Ruanee in the Rajaam Sirwah of 1207. The name of Ajaneed Shah appears in the year Khuthubi or Fasli 1212. In Fasli 1230 the name of Hussain Shah (son of Ahmed Shah) is entered with the remark that the Inam which was situated under Chinna Eri was taken up by Coll.r Gleig for building purposes and this one under the Bapan apalli Tank granted in its stead. In Fasli 1232 the name of Ruxxaim Shaha (wife of Ahmed Shah) is entered. In Fasli 1234 Ahmed Shah's name appears with the remark that this Inam was one granted in lieu of the Inam above Inam situated under Chinna Eri: In 1248 the name of Mahomed Shah is entered as the wife of the Pyrate Inamdar Ahmed Shah. The name of the wife of the Pyrate Inamdar Ahmed Shah entered in Fasli 1232 differing from that given in the accounts of 1248, the Ruanee was asked to account for the discrepancy. From his explanation it appears that the party in question was known by both names.	Ahmed Shah.	Mahalis 50	Pistagapuri	Grandson's wife of No. 1 party in the 13th Column.	Daughter-in-law of No. 2 party in the 13th Column.	The Inam being of an older date than 50 years it is recommended to be conferred to the party in the 18th Column at ½ Quit Rent (Rs.-0-10-0) annum for which have been agreed to. The Inam is under attachment on account of non-attendance of the Inamdar before the Deputy Collector, but she having since attended before the Tasildar within the prescribed time, it is recommended that the Inam should be released from attachment. Redmet Rice Ag Sub Collector. The Collector agrees in the Sub Collector's recommendation. The Inam has been ordered to be released from attachment. Salem 7th June 1867 Collector.	Date of Attachment 1863. Exemption Nov 1864.	Confirmed to the party in Column 16 on the Quit Rent of 10 Annas. To be released from attachment. J.W.Mare 20.6.67

Collr. written to by Board with Sub Jt. Proceedings 5-8-67

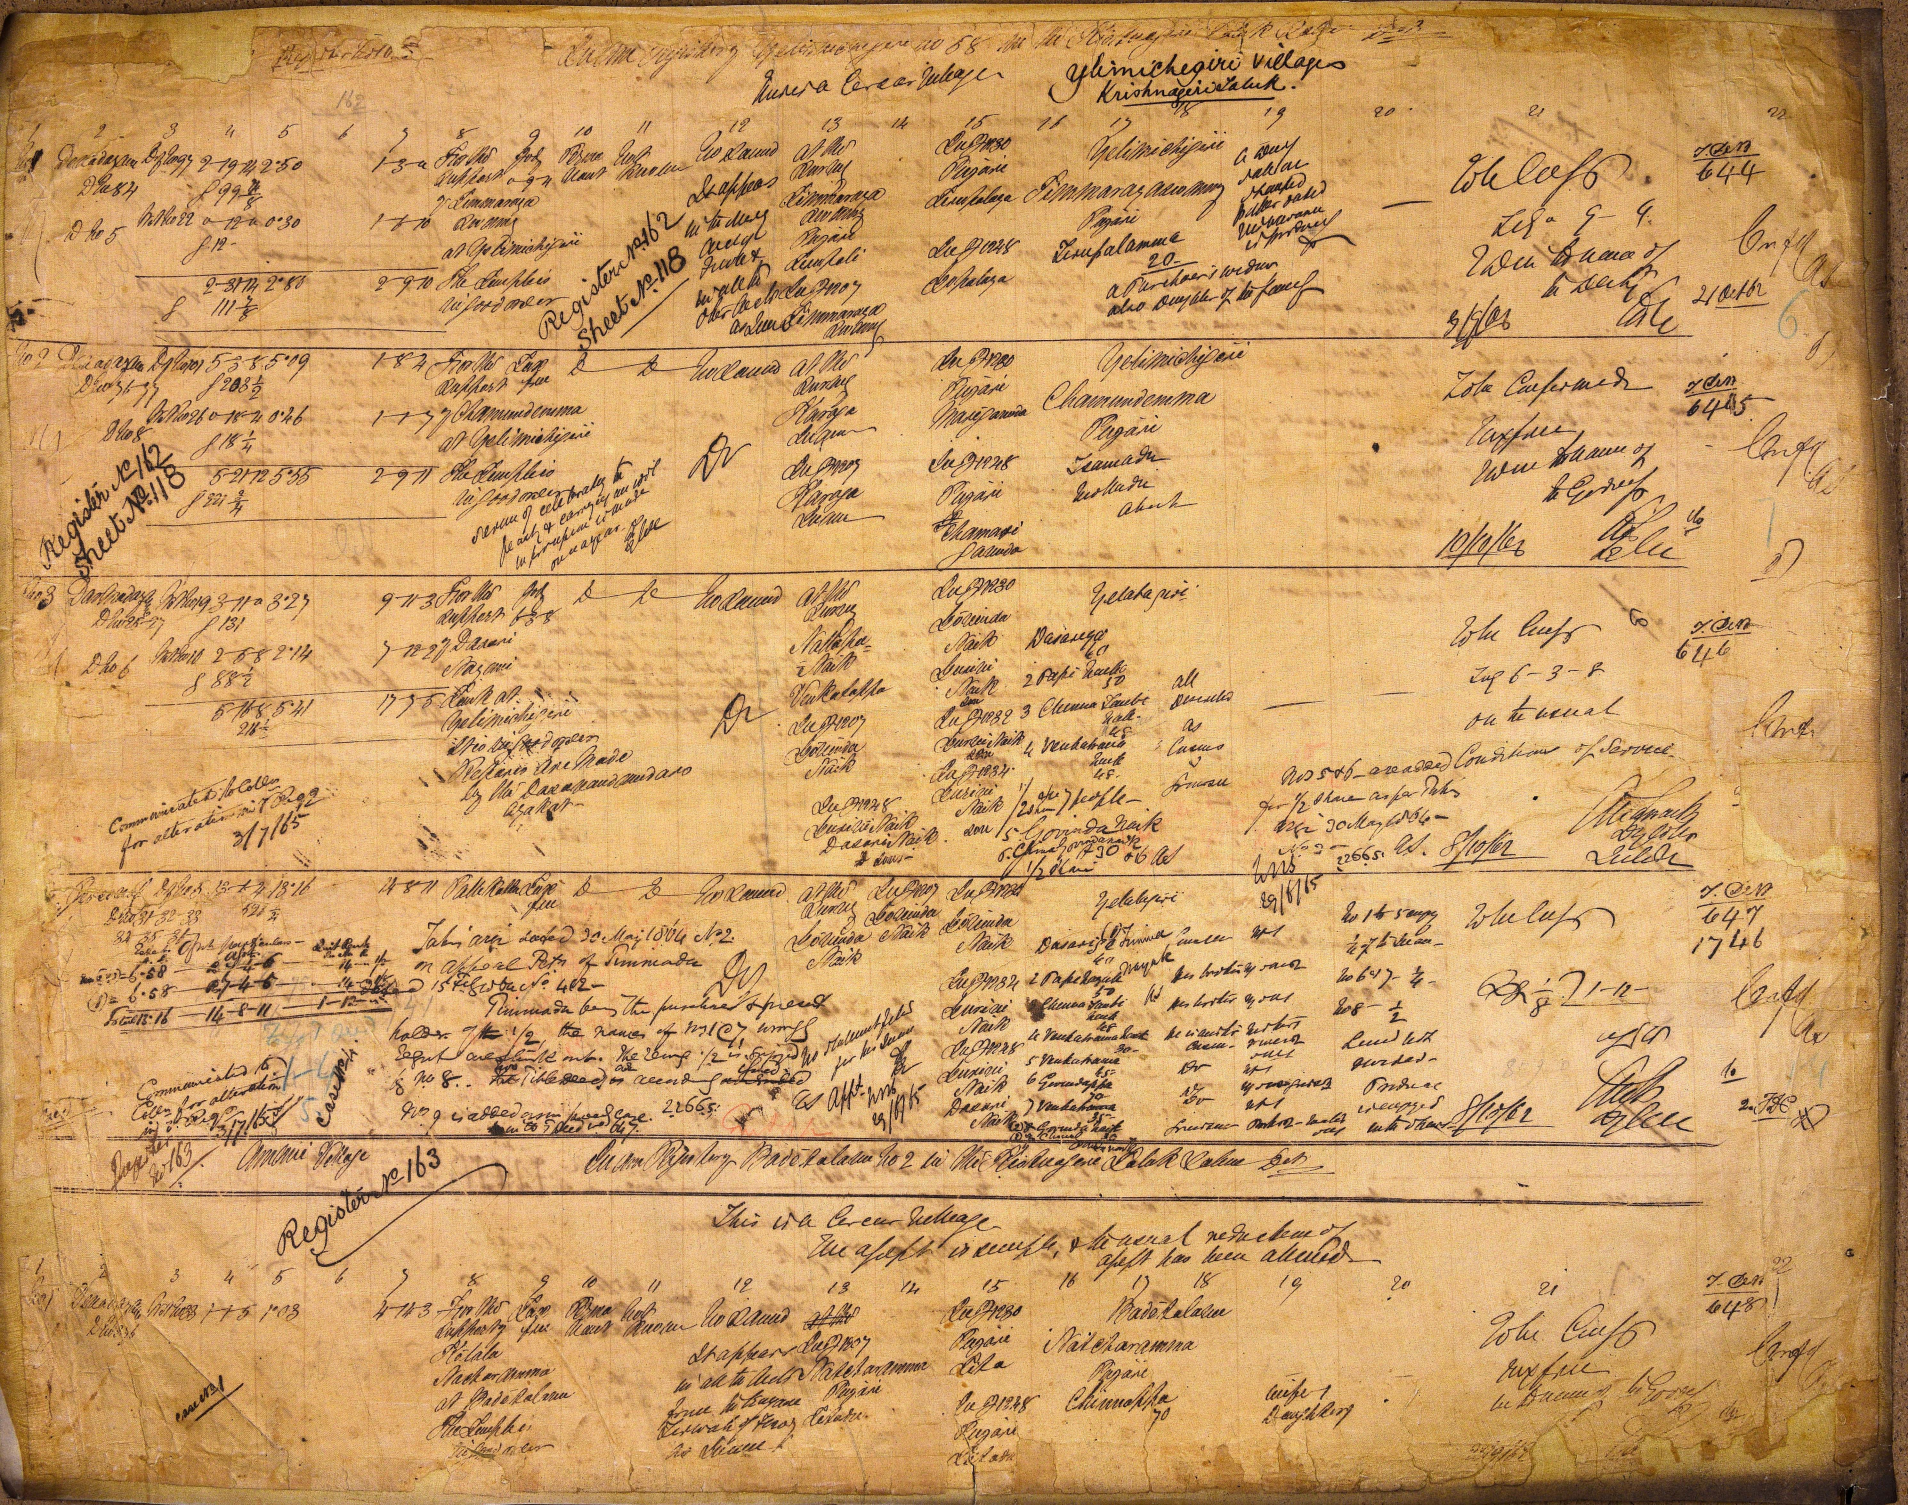

Supplemented

Register No 163 Sheet No 156

Salem Sub Collector's Office Received 1st May 1867.

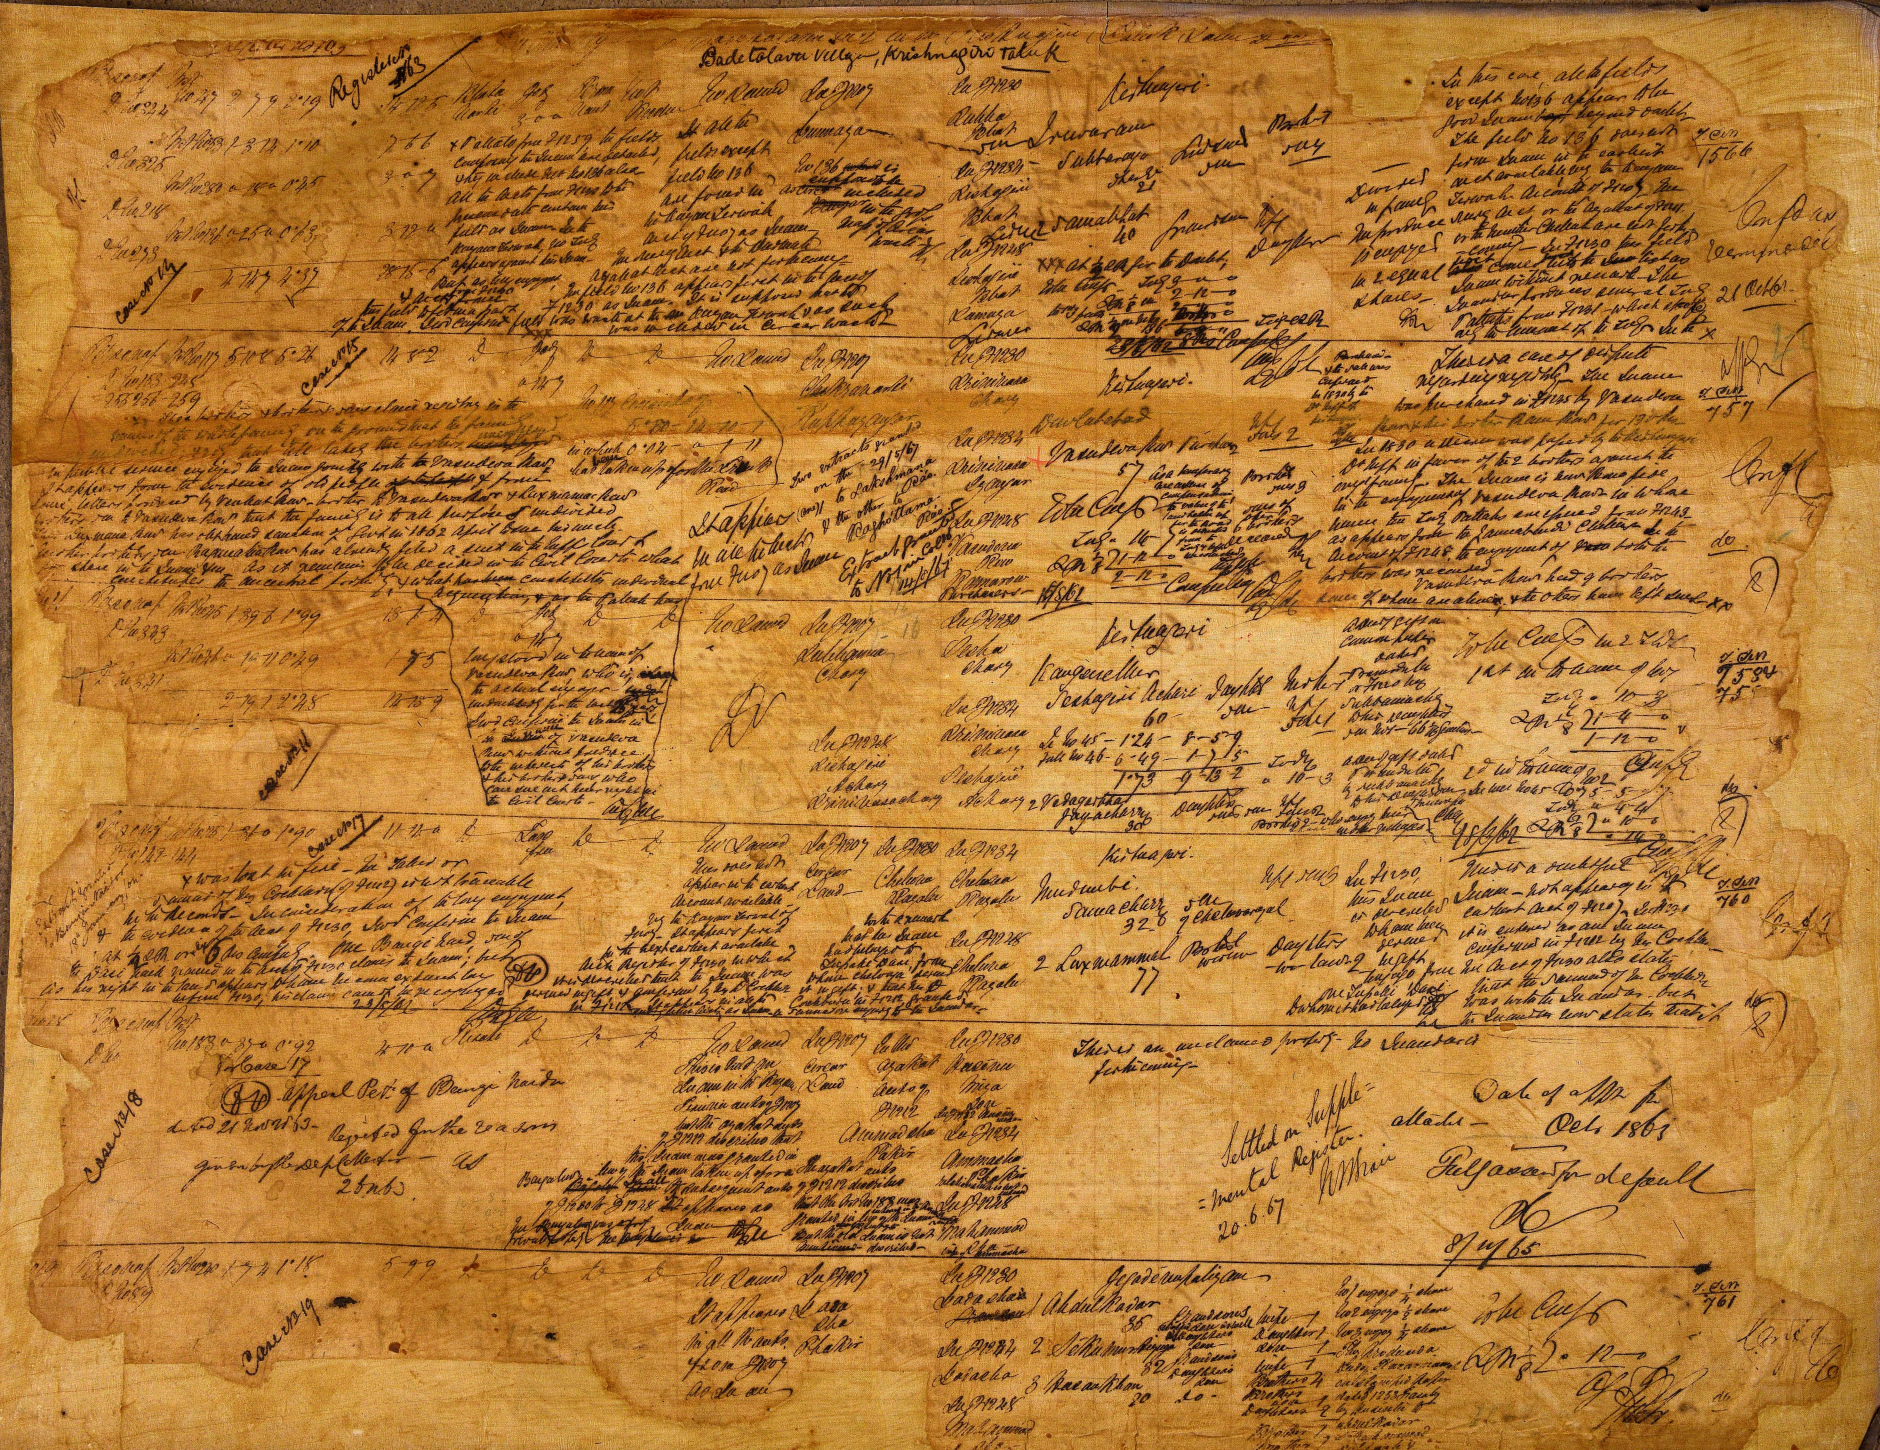

Compd. C.K. 2-7-67.

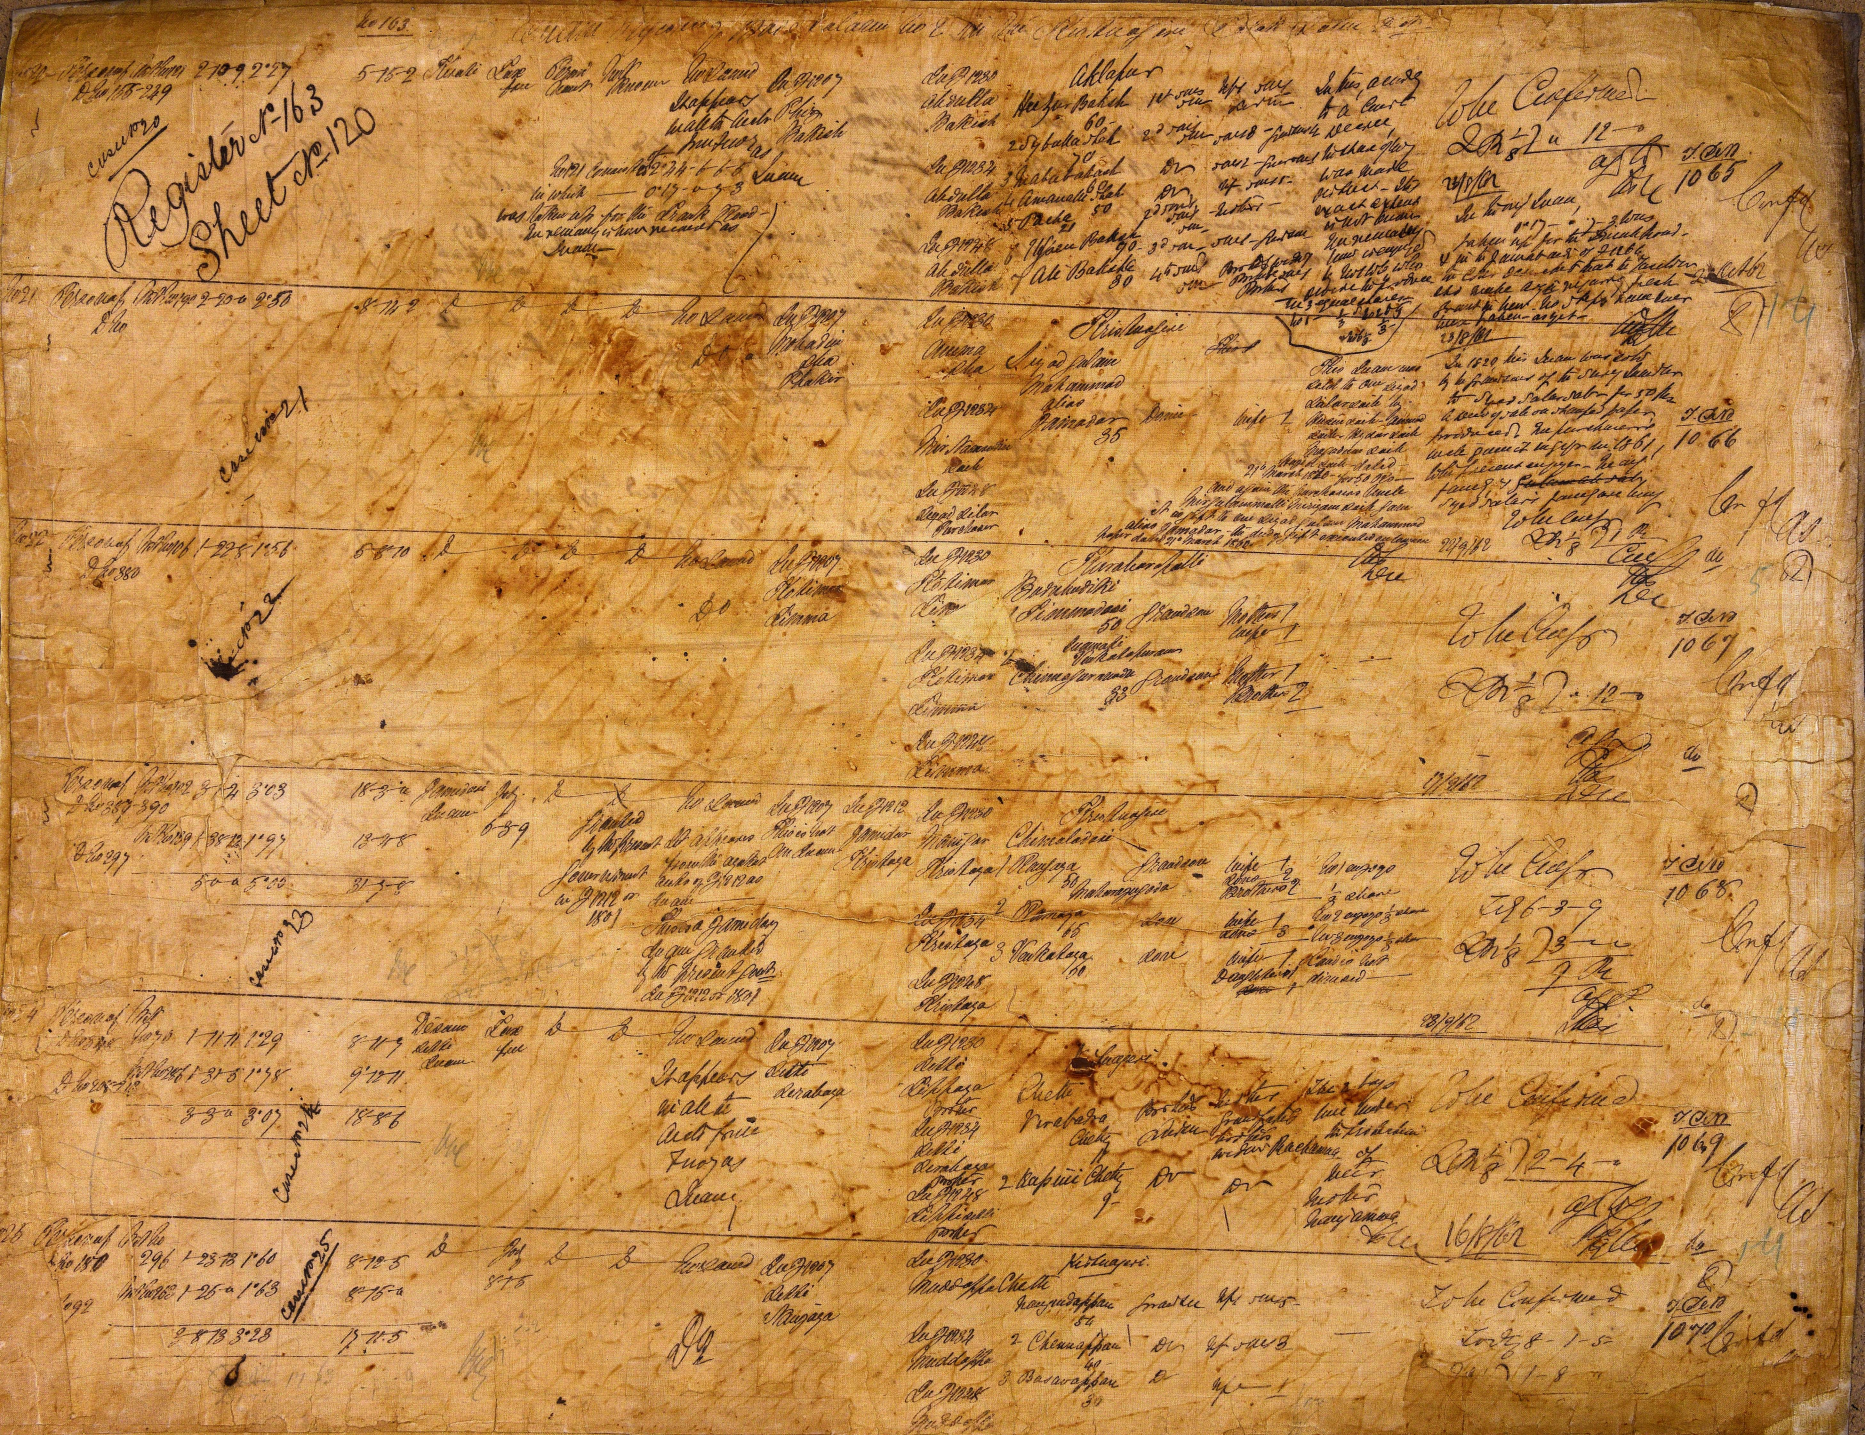

Agd. No 1793.

Register No. 163
Sheet No. 119

Register No 163
Sheet No 120

