Here it appears & begins the beginning & declared it as the wish of the heirs of both the deceased people that the Shum should be — remembered in the name of Munnigappa the eldest son of Pizappa Chetty. Now Mundin Vira Chetty's wife Mundamma appears & states that the whole Shum has been in her husband's enjoyment from 30 years & that the heirs of M.V. have no right in it. But it appears from a deposition taken in 1871 & 1872 in regard to a dispute between M.V. & C. on one side between Vira Chetty on the other concerning Chetty Shum; that Mundin Vira Chetty husband of Mundamma acknowledged the claim by both herself & her jointly as co-heirs of the Shum. In fact there is an affidavit that the challenge was (sons of a sister). The deed of inheritance to the deceased — conferred in the names of Mundamma jointly.
