The village of Sarava Swara Agrahara, both as it is at present enjoyed by the Khandaus of Eddupa and as it is entered in the Register of the Agrahara lands received in charge by the Commissioners for the Survey of Ramkal Taluk, is bounded on the East by the Agrahara lands of Kuppa Swara Agrahara, on the South by the Agrahara lands of Kuppa Swara Agrahara, on the West by the Agrahara lands of Kuppa Swara Agrahara, and on the North by the Agrahara lands of Kuppa Swara Agrahara.

The Agrahara is divided into Khandaus, each of which is enjoyed by the Khandaus of Eddupa.

The whole Swara Khandaus is good arable land, and most of the fields are under cultivation.

I have not recorded the assessment, as they enjoy them free of Government rent, and in accordance with the Register of 1806.

I have recommended a separate Pattah be granted for each case. This course is not only in accordance with the wishes of Government, but I have recommended itself on other considerations also. Here there are 9 Khandaus in the Village, known by the name of Eddupa, able to enjoy equal Agrahara. They are the Circar Eddupa; and the Jodian Eddupa, which is therefore required to pay 8 Pagodas 42 Agrahara Eddupa Pattah 4 Pagodas, Jari Agrahara of the Agrahara received in the Carnatic Pattah 4 Pagodas, Jari Agrahara Eddupa enjoyed by both Agrahara.
