He does not produce any deed of sale, which he alleges was lost — He cannot give the particulars of the purchase or the date, or the parties to the sale — All that he can say is that he enjoys from long time, (unlimited) — But from the Acct of F1231, it appears that the Vritti passed in gift to a Gramdar Narsaya — No doubt he can be Inamdar. None of the Agraharadars say who this Narsaya was — But one Appachary & Venkatappachary of the Agrahar state that one Narsaya — some relation of Annachary was living & her family is living at Salem — All the Agraharadars speak to the enjoyment of the Vritti by the present enjoying family from upwards of 30 years.

To be Confirmed on the strength of the long enjoyment. The ~~any~~ family is extinct.

The witnesses of the deed are all dead — nothing is known of the offspring or heirs of Kupparayan or of Venjarayan. The first 2 families are alleged to have become extinct. The purchase of 1¼ V by Venkata Subbayan is noted in the acct of 1831. [illegible] a kadjan deed of sale (unstamped) dated Krodhana (1824) by Dwaraka Narayanan & Venkata Subbavadhani – selling 1¼ V – one vritti for 100 Pondicherry Rupees –

A deed of sale on stamped paper dated [illegible] (1829) by Anna [illegible] – selling the same ¼ V – to Venkata Subbavadhani [illegible]

Tole Confirmed 1¼ V

In 1805, ½ V was described to have been sold in the Khara before (i.e. 1811) to Munichavadi; but from the acct of 1831, it appears that the whole 1¼ V was sold to Venkata Subbavadhani. The deeds of sale support the fact. It is probable that the ½ had been obtained by the family by purchase from Munichavadi Ramaya.

The widow of Kistnaya has since taken a relinquishment from Meenakshiammal & she has 3 Daughters. As Meenakshiamma possesses a thorough right over her property according to the will & of her own right, ~~[illegible]~~ the future rights of other parties need not be considered & even then Subbayar's will names [illegible] of Kistnaya as Meenakshiammal's heirs. Her husband's brother's sons Iswarayar, Arunachellayar are claimants

Produces a deed of sale on stamped paper dated Visvavasu (1845) by Narayanayar son of Appunarayar, relating to 3/4 V owned by him from his mother's mother Sadamma (wife of the Zemindar) to ~~Narayanayar~~ Sundaram Kistnaya for 135 Rs.

Appunayar had left a wife & a mother but no issue. On the back of the stamped paper the stamp vendor's endorsement shows that Appunayar himself purchased the paper for selling 4 Vs [illegible]

This Vritti belonged to Vydia. His daughter's son Vedinarayanar inherited it & sold it in 1845 to Kistnayar. Kistnayar had 3 brothers who appear to have been divided & at all events to have reckoned personal acquisitions as the separate & own individual property. Kistnayar made over the property by a deed of sale on 20th March 1862 to his brother Subbayar's widow Meenakshiammal for some money which he had borrowed. She was left by her husband's will as undisputed master of all his acquisitions & she purchased the Vritti out of her husband's funds.

Her husband's brother's sons Arunachellam claims [illegible] the Vritti in his name on the plea that [illegible] brother it. Meenakshiamma is present & declares to the same effect. But her husband's brother's son Iswarayar claims a succession to the property after Meenakshiammal's death. Meenakshiammal's husband left her the Vritti [illegible] 1868 by will.
