Inam Register of the Sarva Maniam Agrahar of Pallippàlayam No 5. in the Sankerydroog Dn of the Trichengod Taluk in the Salem District

This is a Sarva Inam Agrahar enjoyed in 56¾ vritties. The Agrahar Pallipalayam comprises according to the survey, the hamlets of Vedi Irisampàlayam, or Dwàrakàpuram; 2d of Mandapathir; 3d of Pàdare. The Circar Village of Pallipalayam comprises the hamlets of Pallippàlayam, 2d Chinnàrapalayam, 3d Eyelandikuttapati; 4th Vellikeettappati; 5th Padeppàlayam; & 6th Agrahar Padeppàlayam. All the 9 villages had formed the original Inam grant, but in Tippu's days, one half of the Inam was resumed. At the assumption of the Country 3 villages were measured out for the Agraharars, as equivalent to their sarvamaniam value, & the remaining 6 villages included entirely in the Circar Ayakat.

The soil is good, & the assessment is ample.

The accts commence with the Fusly of 1206. The lands are not permanently divided. The Divisions have been undergoing the usual exchanges & Collectorate settlement is therefore to be held.

This is a most obscure Agrahar. I fear there is much fraud in this Agrahar. The Agraharars present do not know how much, & in what manner the absentees enjoy. The absentees have not appeared tho' repeated summonses were issued. I have therefore postponed the attachment of the absentee's vritties.

I request instructions may be issued as to how attachments on part of Agrahars sho be carried into effect.

The statement of this person is a very suspicious one. The document of Bava (Year) produced for Narayanachar's sale of 7-8 is absurd as regards date, & to surmount this he pleads that it must be Plava (Year). He has [illegible] & however he [illegible] the remaining 1/4 is alleged to have been mortgaged to others. Again, in respect to 1/8 V of Kuppaiachar's purchase, it appears that the [illegible] he describes in his statement that his father purchased it & mortgaged it to a Dokuma [illegible] Tanda [illegible]. In the enquiry he contradicts his statement & states that it was under mortgage with others, when he purchased it, & that he has not redeemed.
