Case No. 1

Salem Dt.

This was originally a Sarva Inam village — comprising a grant of twice the value of the present Inam. In Tippu's days, and in the early part of the English rule, one half the village was resumed & added to Circar [illegible] Cabba. The Head Inam Patta for the [illegible] specifying the [illegible] fields of the Brahmin Agrahar.

This village consists of Puliambatti & Siranga Goundanpalayam. These 2 hamlets are known by the name of Agrahar Pillagoundanpatti. The Kasba Pillagoundanpatti and hamlets form Circar village.

The [illegible] commence with the [illegible] of 1205.

The Brahmins enjoy the Agrahar in 8 Kases or 32 Vrettis.

The Agraharam first claimed an individual settlement. The Kaseewar accounts of Inos & Inob show the fields that belong to each Kase distinctly & I commenced to hold Kaseewar settlement. But from the more careful conversation with the community & from a more searching examination into their enjoyments, I found that the fields of Puliambatti enter each Kase as they were recorded in Inos, & that the fields of Siranga Goundanpalayam were redistributed among Kases, in [illegible] supersession of the Records of Inob. I have therefore refrained from attempting a Kaseewar settlement, for the convenience sake. I have adopted the Kase system, & settled each Kase — according to Inamdars' affidavits, properly framed. The result of the settlement of Kaseewar is as follows.

The whole village is confirmed in no 78 in 1798 appointment including the share of the alienated [illegible] will be held [illegible] under attachment.
