One by Syed Mahadin Shah grandson's son of one Mashaum Shah – 2nd – by Mohamed Saleh Sab. The 2nd states that the right to the Inam of Pir Gyb Sab's Darga belonged to his grandfather Mashaum Sab – & produces a Sabeli of Col Munro dated 1796 addressed to the Sardar Rangaya, stating that it appeared that the Inam of Pir Gyb Sab Darga at Seramangalam was resumed & that the Inam should be restored to the Fakir (name not mentioned) – The 2nd adds in the latter part that the Mosque Inam of Kattad Sab should also be restored – ~~he also produces a Sunnad~~ Not also produces the Sunnad noted in Col 12, which is in the name of Mashaum Sab – whom is acknowledged by claimant No 2 as the grandfather of No 1 & unconnected with himself. Also an endorsement of the Sub Collector dated 8th October 1832 – No 13 – passed on a petition filed by Syed Ali son of Mashaum Fakir, to the effect that Kazi Kattad Sab was employed by his grandfather as [illegible] for him; that after the death of Kattad Sab, his brothers [illegible] prevented him from Cultivating the land, & that the Darga Inams were also placed under [illegible] with the Mosque Inam of Kazi Kattad, & that Mr Cockburn removed the defendant's names from [illegible] register. The endorsement states that the Inams in dispute between Rabiabebi (wife of Kazi Kattad) & Abdulkhadar (his brother) were not attached, & [illegible] the Darga Inam [illegible] to the petitioner. The fact that the Mosque was attached [illegible] [illegible] that the Darga Inam [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] claimant [illegible]	Confirmed accordingly P. Chetwode Aspl. 23/10/63 T.D. This is entered in all the accounts from F1120 as a Batavarti Inam in the name of Oddapatti Sanjivarayan. Narasaya was described as his son-in-law. The present enjoyer states that this is an Inam for Oddapatti Anjeneyaswamy. In the name of this deity an Inam is recorded in the village of Andipatti. The Inamdar has no documents to produce in evidence to show that the Inam is a Devadayam one. 8 Days time was allowed him to
