Grand

1. Son Chattram = 9a Chattram, aged 16.
1. Tripattur, aged 12.

The land in question seems to have been originally granted on a Nandavanam tenure and flowers, tamarinds and other fruits are raised on it, the flowers being used for pagah purposes in the town and the other produce being appropriated towards the incidental expenses and the maintenance of the adjoining Chattram.

The Gram is proposed to be registered in the name of Nakula Chattram on the usual condition of service.

Ja. May be Co. for the benefit of the Gram.

The present water tank at Tripattur is a small one, but it appears that considerable portion of Tripattur has been from time to time set apart for public and charitable purposes and that the unexplained balance is only fictitious, by reason of error in original measurement.
