The condition was that the money should be paid back by the end of Rakshasa or F1255; & in default the land should be considered as sold for the mortgage amount — [illegible]	Mortgagee Venkatarow son produces a mortgage deed dated Parabhava or 1846 in common paper & claims property in his father Venkatarow's name — As it was no formal sale; & as a valuable property like this could not in equity be disposed as sold for a small sum of money, I have declined to register the Inam in favour of the mortgagee Venkatarow. Besides independent of the invalidity of a foreclosure in respect to valuable property the alleged foreclosure took effect after 1848 which could on no account be recognized by any Court under any circumstances.
