Lalkaianjar (?)

From Gulam Mohedin Subedar who had bought it from Khalisha & Lalamea daughter & of Kuyallisha disciple of the Shamalanga ~~Fakir~~ Fakir. Sinit (?) Bill of Sale dated 1809 - Registered in Court - 2d Bill of Sale Stamped & also Registered in Court dated 1821 -

Lately (?) Haeesha (?) ... by one Fakhruddin who represents himself as the great grandson of Shamalang & denying the title of the seller who he asserts is no son or heir of the Fakir - and in support of this an old Decree of the Cuddalore Zillah Court in 1808 (almost about the time of the sale) is produced wherein the right of Khalisha to the Inam is expressly negatived in favor of the present claimant's father Imamsha - In the face of the Decree however the sales have gone on & the ~~Pagoda~~ alienation in favor of the Pagoda have been recognized by the Revenue authorities & a renewal Sanad of the Sabr (quoting the order of the Collr) in favor of the Pagoda ~~also~~ so long ago as in 1821 is produced & the Pagoda is in possession ever since that period. It must be added however in favor of the claimant that his father has been occasionally petitioning the authorities to be reinstated in his rights tho' no formal enquiry has been instituted - & he says that owing to absence at Madras he was unable to prosecute his complaint to a conclusion - The question however is whether, after so long a possession by the Pagoda & by the ... who sold it to ... how we can, on the strength of the old Court Decree which apparently set aside the right of the first seller to the Inam in favor of the present claimant's father, disturb that possession or even declare the ~~sale~~ title invalid, recognized as it has been by the Revenue authorities by a renewal Sanad - The Decree is certainly ... examine the rights of the seller but ~~it has been~~ the rights conferred by it on the other party have ~~not been~~ been allowed to remain dormant for so long a time that I doubt the propriety of recognizing them now in favor of the claimant - If at all they must be enforced only by a Civil Court - ~~9th May 1861 Bhashyam~~ 2 Rental of Rs. 21 - Compulsory being alienation - 9th May 1861 - Bhashyam (?)
