This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots, possibly due to age or handling. There are faint vertical lines running down the page, which could be part of the original binding or simply creases in the paper. The overall tone is a warm, off-white or light beige.

This Train has not been required into or dispossessed by the Train Commissioner who was not apprized of its existence. -- The possession has been so incidentally brought to his attention, noticed by the Station when he appeared a letter containing to furnish the usual statement on certain other Trains which he has confirmed to be in the other villages, recommended by the Pottsville on a last of Northham of the 2nd 12th Penna. Wm
 which had been subjected to an attachment under 8/1/67 the orders of the Train Commissioner. He says that he failed to furnish the necessary statement to the Train Commissioner during the settlement of the Trains in the Chatham baron Tally as he was then sick at Salem and Co. Const. then out; the excuse is not very satisfactory but his statement has been accepted. -- This Train being in the undisturbed enjoyment of the same place
