Ramudu Aiyar.	S. Ramasami Padayachi.	Movur	No relation	Not known	Ramasami Padayachi's father purchased the land from a Co-partener of the inamdar in 1869.	This appears from the Inam B Register to be a case of 'Brahmarastri' inam. The Inam Fair Register shows that similar inams in the village were treated as personal and enfranchised by the imposition of quit-rent at the Inam Settlement in 1865. The original inamdar and his heirs are all dead. Ramudu Aiyar's name appears in the land register of 1886. The name of Ramasami Padayachi is entered in the Settlement register of 1891 and in the latest copy of the Inam B Register. S. Ramasami Padayachi, the present enjoyer states that the land was purchased by his father Sabapathi Padayachi in 1869 from one Vengur Aiyar, a Co-partener of Ramakrishna Aiyar one of the registered holders Ramudu Aiyar and that since then it has been in the enjoyment of his family. He has filed the original sale-deed in support of his statement. It is not possible at this distance of time to say how this case escaped Settlement. The inam statements filed during the Inam Settlement do not include this case. Ramasami Padayachi has no objection to the resumption of the inam and it is therefore recommended to be resumed and fully assessed and registered in the name of the present occupant.
