who has put in a claim for this ^{through her husband} ~~man~~ as her share presides to have her case settled - She has been waiting here for the last 6 months & puts it to me whether she is to wait indefinitely until her brother chooses to come - Sayad Khadar Useni knows full well ~~that~~ that her sister has been urging her claim to the chaw & has been in fact taking possession of it & her local agent here has been frequently told to write to her master - but as he has not been able or chooses not to appear I am obliged to conclude the case on the ex parte claim & statement of the sister - who ~~she~~ declares that Chaw in the bullocks to have fallen to her share out of the common property of her brother ~~share~~ father's estate as to possession, neither of the parties appear to have exercised effectual ownership over the father's share ~~either~~ belonging to them in the Saluk, the bullocks & a ~~servant~~ an old servant of the family meanwhile appropriating the proceeds to themselves, owing to the absence of the Shandars at a distance & to their being in difference in the matter, until a late period - In the Pawanee &c. if any are with the absentee & I find that during the last two years the claimant has given Caut for the Law to the Sayas - I therefore put in her name leaving the other party to ~~remedy~~ ~~look~~ remedy ~~for~~ for the consequences of his default by action at Court - ~~I sent at 4th~~ after repeated promises of his local agent - that his master ~~was~~ would soon appear, a formal notice was sent & the Law not been complied with - I sent at 4th R.S. 6 - at 6th - 24th Oct. 1861 - Madrasin Bellur &c. Col. I have since been informed that Sayad Khadar is at Madras & is not likely to appear within any reasonable time.
