Kadayk for husband who has put in a claim for the Sham as per Petition praying to have her case settled - She has been residing here for the last 6 mos. this & puts it to me whether she is to wait and defend herself or both the chooses to come - Sayad Khadar Usseni knows full well that his sister has been urging her claim to the Sham & has been in fact enjoying possn of it - & his local agent here has been frequently down to confer with his master - but as he has not been able or chooses to appear I am obliged to conclude the case on the ex parte evidence & statement of the latter - who declares the Sham in the village to have fallen to her share out of the common property of her & her brothers father's estate & to be possession, neither of the parties appear to have exercised effectual ownership over the Sathe Shams or other belonging to them in the Taluk, the villages

& a Kavalkaran an old servant of the family meanwhile appropriating the proceeds & tenants, owing to the absence of the Shamdars at a distance & both being in difference on the matter, until a late period - Ld Collr Canara &c. if any one with the observance & I find that during the last two years the claimant has given Cowl for the Sham both Kayals - I therefore put in her name, leaving the other party to seek redress for the consequences of his default - by action at Court - 1. Rent at ½ After repeated promises of his local Agent that his master would soon appear, a formal notice was sent & the has not been complied with - 2. Rent at ½ Rs 6- Agreed to - 24th Feby 1861 - Mr Madawin Peller Dy Coll.
- I have since been informed that Sayad Hasan resides at Madras & is not likely to appear within any reasonable time 1861

Relevant Loss by Subdivision -

The manner is not affected as may be supposed for the term Kazi - A member of the Kazis holds the office of Town Kazi, but has a money allowance for it (Jaman) - as the Parwanas & Renewal orders & Sanads show the Inam to be undisputably personal -

The ~~Sub~~ Name of the Shares IV & V is under mortgage with Bava Mankajan who will have the Title Deed given over to him -
