Manjakuppam Dharmarajakovil	It is not known how the Pagoda came to be possessed of the Valluvan's maniem - ~~but~~ probably it was taken possn. of on behalf of the Pagoda or Kovil by the village community	A Valluvan or Astrologer's maniem like others of that kind may be considered in a manner the property of the village community appropriable for general municipal village purposes, tho' the astrologer may have died - I hear that the reversionary right or at least the right of appropriating for such general purposes	T. D. No. 302 The appropriation having been made long ago will not be objected to cf recommended the maniems of village Artizans &c. rest with the community & cannot be liable to interference or resumption except in very special cases. I would therefore continue the Inam to the Kovil as long as it is maintained - 6th May 1861 -
