~~The Collector forwarded a Razeenamah from both parties by which the Inam is restored to [illegible]~~

in the actual possession of one Tátáchariar daughter's son of Lakshmiammal mentioned in Col. 14 – he claims it, not as mortgagee, as shown by all the Accounts throughout but as purchaser – A Bill of Sale dated in Angirasa (44 years ago) is produced – and I consider it to have been forged only some 10 days ago, from the consistent evidence of the Accounts, the evidence of the Tahsildar that it is 28 years after the [illegible] date of [illegible] claimant's own father in 1840 before [illegible] of Sale & from the palpable [illegible] is an old Cadjan with a palpably new writing and from ~~many~~ other circumstances under which the document has been produced ~~after having been~~ by the claimant after much delay. Both the mortgage & the sale are of course denied by Krishnayangar who simply alleges that his ~~uncle~~ father simply left it in the possession of the ancestors of the opposite party while leaving for Trichinopoly – ~~and [illegible]~~ Under any circumstances, the claim of purchase is proved false & while I do not disturb the present possession I would recognize Krishnayangar as the proper Inamdar –

The Parvanas &c. produced do not specify the Matham as the object for which the grant was made, but it has always been understood as an endowment for that institution to the use of which as a charitable foundation intended to feed certain class of Travellers (Gósáyis) the maniam has been and is applied and the Matham Proprietors disclaim this as a purely personal grant. To be continued accordingly as such as long as the Mattam and the charities are duly performed.

~~A portion~~ small portion of this Inam 5/16th of a Kani is enjoyed by one Doraivenkatachari who says he got it in gift from the former Gósáyi of the Matham - He requests a separate Title Deed for this small portion - this is objected to by the Gósáyi who say that it is allowed ~~to a part of the Mattam~~ ~~temporarily~~ by a part of the Matham simply for enjoyment & not transferred away in absolute gift which would be illegal the grant being for the Matham - Inasmuch as the bulk of the Inam is enjoyed for the Matham & is continued on the understanding that it is duly maintained, I think we should not recognize this small alienation by a separate Title Deed -

From the prefix "Mahatádi" to the Inamdar in the Acct of 1236, it is ~~not~~ no doubt inferrible that the Inam was for village service & generally tho such service has not been performed since the Country came under the Company - the family were Mahatads or Peons ~~to~~ in the old Fort St David tho' the Inam has been enjoyed as personal since
