[illegible] teachers, the villagers appear [illegible] appropriated the proceeds of the Inam when cultivated to the Pagoda instead of giving over the Inam to any person [illegible] him to the service. On my informing them that this is irregular the village community have nominated one of their gratuitous teachers to the service & solicit that the Inam may be regd in his name. Being a large Brahmin village & the service being required I think the Inam may be

Confirmed with the [illegible] of the party in Col. 10 [illegible] Mayan Gopal Charlu

Named [illegible] in Col. 15 were [illegible] chari last named that first named Kata Chari, who had been teaching the Vedas left the village. Thereupon it wd. appear the villagers nominated another man by name Srinivasa Charri – who after serving for nearly 10 years gave up the service – This being a large Brahmin village – & there being several [illegible] giving gratuitous instruction in the Vedas & the Inam being small [illegible] every year – the boys receiving instruction from them gratuitous

The party in Col. 14 & that first [illegible] brothers – & Tiruvenkata with the latter [illegible] is son of [illegible] Nearly 40 years ago Tiruvenkata [illegible] teaching the Vedas left the village [illegible]
