original grantee. It is stated in the Jari Sannads given by the Tahsildar of Vizhuppuram under date 17th February 1827 that 1 Kani of Sannad Inam belonging to Alagiya Singarachari which is situated in Sirivandadi village should continue in the enjoyment of the holder who possessed and enjoyed up to last year.

Jari Sannads bearing dates respectively the 30th March 1828, 5th August 1832, 12th July 1835 and 13th August 1839 contain the same particulars.

Note. In the Jari Sannads produced by the Inamdar the extent of Sannad Inam is shown as 1 Kani whereas the same in the Statements given by the Inamdar is entered as 1-1-2, (E.A.P.) which is said to have been in the enjoyment of the family of the original grantee ever since it was granted. And in the Pajmash account of F. 1215 the same extent 1-1-2 (E.A.P.) is entered. How the extent entered in the Jari Sannads is probably a clerical error.
