Widows of Sangaramalyar

The aforesaid Enamdars having duly shewn and proved their Title to the Inam Lands of Kilkapálayam in the 14 other Villages of Pattakadi shown in the Schedule hereto annexed by virtue of Sunnud No. 1904 dated 5th April 1806 Granted by the Honble the Court of Directors for the Affairs of the United East India Company, and Confirmed by Sunnud No. 1 dated 1st January 1807 Granted by the Honble the Governor in Council of Fort St. George

Of course, the deed is 55 years ago & they have been in enjoyment, but without authority. The circumstance were brought to the notice of the late Collector in 1855, when after remarking on the unauthorized manner in which the Inams have been thus held after the death of Sangaramalyar, he directed that the Inamdars in the other Villages should be assessed & the Inam continued to the two Widows for their respective lives, the Patta of each to lapse on her death. Under these circumstances the question is submitted for consideration whether the Inamdars have not now acquired a life interest in the Inam, tho' originally they had no title. If this is decided in the affirmative each party is prepared to pay Rent proportionate to the Share at present held by them.
