Very often the name that appears in the Inam Jummabandi of 1217 is not that of the particular person in possession but of the Chief of the Kattubadi party of Peons under whom several men held Manioms —

23d May 1861 — Vadaswami Pillai, Actg

Strictly speaking the following Kattubadi Inams ought to have been resumed on the deaths of the early incumbents that is the persons in possn. in about Fasli 1217, according to the orders of Govt in 1806 these Manioms have been suffered to be enjoyed by their successors — There appears to have been some enquiry in Fasli 1241 into these tenures & the incumbents then recorded have been continued in possn. — It is therefore recommended that these men be confirmed in the possn. of their respective Inams for their lives — (See closing remarks in baseline paper) No enfranchisement is desired —

23d May 1861 — Vadaswami Pillai, Dy. Colr.

In this case the relationship of Kistnappa Naick to Venkatachala Naick is not made out — & the recommendation is made on the ground that the incumbent's name appears in the Kattubadi Inam enquiry statement of Fasli 1241 — It must be added however that ...

Sub Collector's letter d/ 14 May 1866 No. 62 states that the party in Col. 16 relinquishes the Inam and as unfit for cultivation & forwards the T. Deed for cancelment.

The T. Deed will be cancelled & the Collector written to to incorporate the Inam with Ayakut — ... 27/9/66
