[illegible] in 1825. 10 Vis for Kristnama chariar (No. 4 in Vol. 15). Of the 34 Vis No. 11 giving away in gift 1 Vis to each of Nos. 12, 13 & 28, enjoys the remainder. Ditto purchased — In addition 2 Vis, being his share of the estate granted to his ancestor. No. 14 purchased in Jaya, 2½ Vis from Lakshmi Ammal, in [illegible] 4 Vis from Gopalakrishna Sastri who is said to have purchased them from No. 89 Balakrishna, in Subhakrit, 1 Vis from [illegible] whose 5 Vis had been sold [illegible] years by No. 99 in the Pain[illegible], in Vikari 1 Vis from a[illegible] of No. 14, in Parabhava, 1½ Vis from Ramaswami Sastri, who had had in 1826 3½ Vis in gift from No. 69 [illegible], in Raktakshi [illegible] Vis for present holder No. 15, in 1858, 4/16 Vis for Nagammal [illegible] daughter in law of No. 36 in Vol. 15, in Pingala ½ Vis for the [illegible] of No. 5 in the said Vol. & he enjoys the aggregate of 14 4/16 Vis. Ditto purchased. No. 15 having [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

ie. the holdings having been exchanged. It is recommended the confirmation and [illegible] and in 17 D.t & on 1/8 2R.

Nos. 105, 106, 107 have not attended. These lands are in the enjoyment of others for a long time on mortgage.

Nagammal, Inamdar No. 14 has been stated to have purchased 4/16 Vis in 1856 objected to the registry of the [illegible] in No. 14's name alleging that she did not sell the land to him but only mortgaged it with him. The deed of sale which is produced, she says, is a fabrication & as a proof of it she states that the deed bears her mark (Kural) whilst she knows to sign her name. The attesting witnesses speak to the execution of the deed by Nagammal. They, at the same time, assert that they were not aware that the woman was capable of [illegible] her name. Nagammal [illegible] [illegible] the witnesses others [illegible] the mortgage deed which she says she executed, [illegible] that the land was only mortgaged. The woman is a troublesome character & is notorious for [illegible]. She, not at first claimed the [illegible] land, afterwards [illegible] [illegible] mortgage [illegible] her. But the woman is not an [illegible]. I feel [illegible] that the sale alleged [illegible] took place, on [illegible] circumstances [illegible] her [illegible]

The village in which this Inam is situated is an entire Sarvamanyam. [illegible] more than once observed that Inams of this description are also met with in almost every village Inam as well as Sarvamanyam. That they appear to have been originally granted by the Inamdars out of their [illegible] lands to the village Pagoda [illegible] that they are entered and enjoyed in the [illegible] accounts as a distinct class of Inam [illegible] [illegible]

What is entered as being in the Regr. of No. 1024 the extents specified therein [illegible] 180 [illegible] that entered under No. 1 in their manager's [illegible] portion of the 25 [illegible] No. 2 in the same [illegible]. The extent in No. 30 [illegible] in the year 1868 for [illegible] daughter in law of Bhavani Sankar Dikshitar No. 1 in the Reg. of 1809. [illegible]

This Inam though originally granted as [illegible] for the [illegible] in village Elandurai Kovilpattu, was included in the [illegible] of No. 1226 or 1238 in the Dittam of the adjoining [illegible] village of Elandurai. Vide remarks in Inam No. 1.

The extent specified in the [illegible] from the [illegible] is V 4 – 10 – with rod 14 feet long – which is equivalent to V 6 – 2 – 50 with a rod 12 feet in length. This is almost the same as the present extent which is V 6 – 1 – 97.

The Inam has been assessed at the rates adopted for the village.

The Sanjivi Bikshai No. 1 [illegible] in giving food [illegible] to Brahmins visiting the village. In the Rameswara Dharmam No. 2 [illegible] Bhavani [illegible] going to Rameswaram, which is done [illegible] and food to Brahmins [illegible] daily at Elandurai [illegible] maintaining water [illegible] at both places during the [illegible].

To be confirmed [illegible].

What No. 1 & 2 [illegible] are [illegible] for the charity [illegible] No. 3 holds is charged ½ 2 R [illegible]

17-12-66. [illegible]

The Extent entered in the R. of 1809 for No. 1 & 2 appears to be less than what they now enjoy – the difference as well as the [illegible] enjoyed by No. 3 should be confirmed on 1/8 Q. R. only – There is no ground for a higher Q. R. being imposed on No. 3 unless the [illegible] nor for exempting increased extent enjoyed by No. [illegible] from Q. R. – The Tahsildar [illegible] state the [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] and report whether the widow from whom he purchased has heirs or not.

22/11/67

See Inam Sarishtadar's 18th (15) May 1868. The widow who sold to No. 3 has no issue – but she has divided collateral heirs – From the extract quoted in col. 11 I do not see that the Inam was originally granted for any charitable purpose. The grant should be sent for –

MC

Same as [illegible] that Sanjivi Bikshai & Rameswara Dharmam are [illegible] Col. 12 & 13. –

I do not think that half [illegible] and therefore be charged to No. 3 as the seller has collateral heirs & this is a service Inam. 1/8 will be charged. Extent enjoyed by No. 3 to be [illegible] No. 1 & 2 will be [illegible] free as there is no proof that they [illegible] the [illegible] in [illegible] –
