Periya Swami Constituting him special Agent for the affairs of the Mattam produces a number of documents in proof of them Title being decreed of the late Supreme Court in Madras for schedules of property filed therein by the Chinnaswami, as Insolvent debtor to show that the latter has no right to the Mattam. One of these documents is a Deed executed by the said Chinnaswami in the year 1849 to Subbanna relinquishing all claim to the Mattam and its property of which he had been in possession by the Magisterial decision.

These documents also appears to have been filed in the Court last named in a matter of a dispute regarding a house belonging to the Mattam near Madras between the two individuals. Notwithstanding this Chinna Swami now claims the mattam & which he has been deprived by the strength of the decision of the magistrate upon the spot then and the Periaswami being absent, his claim to the Magistrate supposed was certainly preferable to that of Subbanna and it is evident from the part of the Magistrate in taking security for the preservation of the property delivered during the absence of the Periaswami that his title was not regarded as permanent. At having immediately left these points he made wrongful use of the property he was bound to preserve intact by the act of his agent here and or cause his Cannot be prepared Subbanna. Moreover it appears that Subbanna has the keys of the Mattam receives the rents for the garden in the Inam & the Cash and pays for the expenses of the worship in the Mattam Pagoda, through the Tahsildar presented in Each year to the Collector (as a petition presented by Ayyam perumal Mayaldar in reference to the receipts granted by the Chinnaswami of the Mattam property when he was first in possession according to the Magisterial order and the security then taken, that the Chinnaswami is in enjoyment, without holding any enquiry as to who is actually in possession. It is said that the Periaswami is dead and they say that the Chinnaswami has not succeeded him but another. The reason may be the right of the latter to succession [illegible] may be the present Periaswami [illegible] to our settling the Inam in the
