[illegible] enjoys 1½ Visams, 1½ Visa purchased in 1860 from present holder N° 16 [illegible] 1 Visa in [illegible] from Ramanand just mentioned. Deeds produced — N° 66 enjoys 5/16 out of the 5/8 in the name of his ancestor [illegible] 3/16 said to have been purch^d previous to 1804 by his grandfather from son of N° 53. The deed of sale is said to have been lost, but the 3/16 purch^d appears in the Regr of 1804 in the name of the alleged purchaser. N^os 69 & 70 enjoy in equal shares the 1/4 sh purch^d by their father in Rakthakshi ½ Visa from a grandson of N° 25 & ½ Visa from a daughter of N° 41 in col: 15 & 3 Visa [illegible] allowed [illegible] N° 68 — Deeds produced — The 1/8 sh in the enjoyment of N° 71 [illegible] by his [illegible] in Kilaka from N° 77 in col: 14 & 1/16 in Vikrama from the son in [illegible] of N° 41 in the same col. Deeds of sale produced — [illegible] purchased 2 Visa in [illegible] from [illegible] who had got it by virtue of his having performed the funeral [illegible] to whom it had been sold by son of N° 21 in [illegible] from brothers son of N° 7 in col: 14. The [illegible] Visa equally between them. N° 72, daughter of one of them, enjoys [illegible] the remainder or 3/32, 1/32 being his mother's, & the other two daugh[illegible] half Visams, one to N° 73 & another in Rakthakshi & one to N° 73 [illegible] in 1862. Deeds produced. N° 74 enjoys the 1/4 sh which appears in col: 14 in the name of his grand father N° 63, who is said to have had it in gift from [illegible] N° 22. When the village was originally granted as Inam to the Brahmins of the 2 Agraharams named in col: 13 it is said that two Brahmins namely Tippanna Sas: & Aiyalas: who were also residents of those Agraharams failed to get any grants along with the rest. The villagers therefore arranged amongst themselves to increase the number of shares, namely 23¾ to 24, & granted the excess ¼ sh to the 2 residents named in equal parts or 1/8 each — in the year Raudri [illegible] Sas: & Appalas sons of Tippannalas: & Aiyalas respectively [illegible] their enjoying as Inams from the ¼ sh so granted. Thus the number of shares of the village in reality held is 24, whilst in accounts & transactions it is only 23¾ [illegible] 1/16 [illegible] of the 3/8 granted to Tippannalas. N^os 78 & 79 his sons divided equally between them the remaining 5/16, the former enjoying in ad^n [illegible] 1/16 sh which he purchased in Raudri from [illegible] who had pur[illegible] in the same year from [illegible] who as cousin to N° 9 in col: 15 [illegible] to them [illegible] performing his funeral rites about 40 years ago. Deeds produced. [illegible] 3/5 – 56 [illegible] is now in the enjoyment of N° 80 his great grandson, who holds deeds [illegible] by his father in the year Krodhi as proof of purchase from brothers grandson [illegible] 25. What N° 81 enjoys was given in Vikrama under [illegible] to his mother [illegible] grand mother, Balammal, grandson's widow of N° 1. Deed produced. [illegible] N° 82 is said to have purch^d 1/32 sh from Appaswamy son of N° 63 in col: 14, & 1/8 from [illegible] son of N° 37 in col: 15. Deeds of sale are said to have been lost — but the sale of [illegible] is allowed [illegible] deed of sale submitted by him to N° 4 [illegible] by the [illegible] (Ramanathan) now alive. — N° 83 enjoys 1/32 [illegible] 1/16 in [illegible]

[illegible] by a [illegible] of a kind 1/32 was to be held by N° 78's [illegible] (son to N° 82) his father purchased 1/16 from Tippammal (said to have [illegible] N° 75 in col: 14) and then sister of his mother. When the purchase was made [illegible] but this 1 Visa [illegible] in the name of N° 83's father in [illegible] (N° 39 in col 15) — [illegible] Sas: [illegible] 1/32 to N° 1. [illegible] enjoys the remaining 1½ Visa & the 3/32 obtained from N° 78 in col: 14 — What N° 84 enjoys [illegible] in gift in the year Rakthakshi by N° 85 grandson's widow of N° 28 [illegible] of the ½ sh originally acquired by him. Deed of gift produced. N° 85 is widow [illegible] in col 15 & enjoys 13/16 out of the 1¼ in her name. — What N° 86 enjoys was given to him [illegible] in the year Rakthakshi by present holder N° 85. Deed of gift produced. [illegible] N° 12 in col: 15 & the 1/8 sh which she enjoys was given to her under [illegible] in the year [illegible] by her father who is said to have [illegible] Deed of gift prod^d. N° 88 enjoys 1¼ of which ½ was purch^d by himself [illegible] son of N° 35 in col. 14 & 1/16 from the brothers son of N° 24 in [illegible] by his father, 1/16 in 1857 (1/16 from the [illegible] of N° 34, & ¼ from present holder [illegible] in Plavanga (1/8 from the grandson of N° 4 & 1/8 from N° 15 in col. 14) 1/16 in Kala from a grandson of [illegible] who is said to have purchased it from [illegible] brother of N° 8, 1/16 in Vilambi (1/32 from present [illegible] 1/32 from the brothers grandson of [illegible] 75 & 1/16 in Pingala from the brothers grandson of N° 27 [illegible] produced.
