The land is at present occupied by flowers trees; the village people use the flowers for domestic worship & for Pillayar's Pagoda. The Inam does not appear in the accounts earlier than 1738. During the settlement of this case, it was urged that the Inam was held from upwards of 8 years. As this is doubtful, they recommend that the Inam be confirmed to the villagers, subject to a Quit Rent of 1/4 the assessment or annas two, so long as the produce is applied to charitable purposes.	Confirmed on present tenure subject to quit-rent of annas 2. 23-11-68 Tanjore
