The village in which this Inam is situated is an enti[re] Inam – Inams of this descrip[tion] being Topes or Peramboke lands are to be met with in almost every village in this District. Inam as well as Taruppu. They appear originally to have been granted by the Meerasidars from of their Peramboke lands of which [they] appear as deductions in the District [records, show]ing their origin. they are not mentioned [or] alluded to in the Sikas from the Villages and the absence of all allusion to them therefore [in] the grant does not argue their non existence at the time. In the account of Fusly 1226 when Inam villages were for the first time [illegible], these Inams are entered with ×
