+ Ráma Sharry executed an agreement [illegible] to Vedaryása Sharry of No 125 estate, [illegible] to the grant of 1/4 of the share made in 1848 alluded to above, stating that owing to a dispute between himself & his cousin Gópala Sharry the land was not made over to him; & the dispute having now been amicably adjusted, the Vedaryása Sharry was at liberty to take possession of & enjoy the land. The said Ráma Sharry made over the land 1/4 share to Vedaryása Sharry of No 125 estate in 1856, together with the produce of the Inam of 1855. The said 1/4 share has since been in the enjoyment of the said Vedaryása Sharry [illegible] recommended [illegible] in respect to the deed of gift, agreement & enjoyment.

The share of Anná Sharry son of No 34 estate was 3/8. The Anná Sharry died 30 years ago leaving his sister Akkammal of No 27 estate & Bálcha Sharry, Narayana Sharry & Ranga Sharry of No 125 estate. Akkammal claimed the whole Inam of her father Madava Sharry of No 34 estate. Bálcha Sharry the daughter's son of Madava Sharry of No 34 estate filed a suit in the [illegible] court claiming the whole Inam of the deceased Anná Sharry son of the said Madava Sharry. ~~[illegible]~~ Akkammal entered into a compromise before the court with Bálcha Sharry, binding herself to enjoy 1/4 share for life. The said Akkammal died in 1853. In virtue of the said Razeenamah, the said 1/4 reverted to Bálcha Sharry & Ranga Sharry the father of No 125 estate, of which the share of No 125 estate is 5/32 or 5/8 of 1/4.

& of the remaining 1/8 the share of No 125 is 1/24.

1/32 was obtained as gift by [illegible] of No 125 estate by her mother Narasammal daughter of No 32 estate about 40 years ago.

[illegible]ammāl, i.e. son-in-law Subba Sāstry the No. 141 claimant. [illegible] Subba Sāstry to [illegible] the [illegible] & take possession of the 5 Vēlis of land in the [illegible] he was [illegible] granted to Giribayamma his brother's widow for her maintenance. [illegible] Will [illegible] on [illegible] in 1841. Appanna Sāstry died. His widow Rangabāyi Ammāl died 8 years ago. The son-in-law Subba Sāstry & [illegible] daughter's sons Venkoba Sāstry & Kistna Sāstry have succeeded to the property.

Giribayamma brother's widow to Appanna Sāstry died in Raudri 1860.

One Narasimha Bhima Sāstry [illegible] urges his claim to the Inam [illegible] held by Giribāyi Ammāl on the ground that his wife Gōpikābāyi was adopted by Giribāyi amma about [illegible] years ago. This is entirely false. Gōpikābāyi is the brother's son's daughter to Giribāyi & sister [illegible] of Bhima Sāstry. [illegible] It appears that in virtue of the [illegible] Rājanāma in 1827, Appanna Sāstry granted 5 Vēlis of land to his brother's widow Giribāyi for her maintenance which she was enjoying & Rājanāma [illegible] from [illegible] Giribāyi it [illegible] Appanna executed a Will on [illegible] paper on 24 Sept 1860 granting the said 5 Vēlis to her alleged adopted daughter Gōpikabāyi as dowry. Under the circumstances represented above, Giribāyi being had no power to alienate the land. In virtue of the Will executed in 1834 by Appanna Sāstry the said 5 Vēlis reverts to his son-in-law Subbana Sāstry No. 141 claimant [illegible] daughter's son according to Hindu Law. It is recommended that the said 5 Vēlis may be confirmed to No 141 claimant.

Total 9/16 the share of No 141 claimant.

The whole of this waste is fit for cultivation. This [illegible] has been set aside by the Agraharamdars in general for [illegible] & [illegible] the joint charge of the Village. This wet has been lying waste for the last 3 years only, being the common property of the Agraharamdars.

The Garden waste is Seyigal fit for cultivation. The soil is Karisal, a description of Regada, or what is called [illegible] in this District. The Irrigation to these lands is supplied by the Kilyar, a branch of the Koriyar which branches out from the Vennar. This Village consists of 10 Kattas. There are one or two Kattas which yield 160 fanams per Veli. While the gross Value of the other Kattas varies from 100 to 130 fanams, the average being 145 fanams a Veli. The average rate of the adjoining Govt Villages is 140 fan. or 5 R an acre, which is a fair assessment. The Village is in its full developed state. The Valuation of the Village may fairly be taken at 2000 exclusive of the Karnam Rosoom. Recommended to be [illegible] on one Joint Title & partly [illegible] & partly [illegible]
