Virappan the husband of No. 45 who died a year ago leaving a widow Vilammal. Vilammal produces a Datta Patrika or adoption paper said to have been executed by himself conjointly with her husband on the 26 July 1861 to Vaidya Raja, a 25 years old brother of Vilammal declaring that he was adopted by them as their son. This document, on the face of it, is not established. The Dharmadars one and all deny all knowledge of the adoption. The shares of the deceased are therefore continued to his widow Vilammal.

[illegible] died in 1829 leaving a mother-in-law widow Anjalai No. 28. Muttu Pillai the father of Valu Pillai No. 11 and of his brother Arumugatta Pillai divided the lands in equal shares 30 years ago. Muttu Pillai dying, his son succeeded to his share. Valu Pillai died in 1849. The enquiry held by the Tahsildar in regard to the death of Valu Pillai, Arumugatta Pillai uncle of the deceased Valu Pillai deposed that the deceased's widow Anjalai and himself were undivided. The Tahsildar submitted the deposition to the Collr.; he submitted the case. The Board in their Pro: dated 30 Oct. 1856 directed the share of the deceased to be continued to his undivided uncle Arumugatta Pillai No. 27 only. Anjalai widow of the deceased Valu Pillai was not enquired into. Hence the discrepancy. Notwithstanding the above, Anjalai and his mother are in the [illegible] and enjoying the share of the deceased quite unmolested by Arumugatta Pillai.
