Tulajendrapuram

The Village of Tulajendrapuram formerly known by the name of Vanjénelli is divided in two Shares. In the first instance, 9 Veths of Castle-land were granted by Sakkoji Raja in 1719. The Village consists of 180 Ranjes or Shares, at 100 Gulies each Ranjes measure, & is rented at present at 1400 Pagodas per annum. Tolasendrapuram Agraharam is free land, in the occasion of Eclipse of the Sun, & the Brahmins of Tolasendrapuram Agraharam have built 350 Pucka houses therein, in addition to 350 Puckah houses & each of them pay a Tax of one Fanam per annum to the Sircar of Tulajendrapuram.

Agrm. in 1726, Sakkoji Raja granted duty of the Village of Tulajendrapuram to Sonapa Pangunelli, consisting of Wet Water 9 Dry 89 - 10 - 76 Total 100 - 10 - 75 Kuli - measured at Palmé Garden, including Ranja, Ranjan & Samudrajan, according to the terms of the Grant, in company of the Gospel words of the Disciple of Annamarajapuram Arankaja, in addition to what had been previously granted to the then formed Village of Tulajendrapuram, which is granted as Sarwa Manyam Entire.

In 1742, Narasingha Raja granted the Village of Yedayanatham, Sandra Kotteri & Atti Kottai to the Brahmans of Tulajendrapuram Agraharam as Sarwa Manyam Entire & held by them hereditarily, the Revenue of the Sarwa Manyam Entire.

The Villages Tulajendrapuram, Yedayanatham, Sandra Kotteri & Atti Kottai, were formerly divided in 180 Ranjes or Shares. In dividing the lands, the following distribution of Shares was effected, Viz:—

Tulajendrapuram	180 Ranjes
Atti Kottai	180 Ranjes
Yedayanatham
120 Small Shares reputed ½
60 Large Shares	180 Ranjes
Sandra Kottai	120 Ranjes

The holder of a small Ranjes in the Village of Yedayanatham owns also holds a Ranjes in Atti Kottai; & a Ranjes in Tulajendrapuram & a Share in Sandra Kottai. The holder of a large Ranjes in Yedayanatham holds a Ranjes in Tulajendrapuram; Atti Kottai & & a small Share in Yedayanatham.

The holder of a Small Share & a large Share in Yedayanatham, holds a Share in each of the Villages, with the exception of the proprietary Share in Sandra Kottai & large Share in Yedayanatham.

Tulajendrapuram contains 15 holders of Small Ranjes & ½ Ranjes } in the Village of Yedayanatham.
Item, 15 holders 1½ Ranjes in Tulajendrapuram, in Atti Kottai & one Ranjes in the Village of Sandra Kottai.

The Village of Tulajendrapuram consists of the descriptions of Mel-Vaitchel Ranjes, or Wet cultivation kept by Channel irrigation & Mainduvaru Vaitchel, dependant on the rains.

The Boundaries of the Vaitchel Wet is supplied by the Tiruvanjeri Anicut branched to Nainani Revenue. In the Survey, the Wet entered the description of Wet is estimated as one crop, & agreed Survey 216.64.
