land in this village after deducing Panabake's share in same & this right to the No. 5 and is owned by 3 individuals. This right to the Viz. 1. Aggho-avasthi - Recd 103-05
2. Hare Rajan & 3. Surumant 10508 - DMS Agar - of which the two latter appeared already before the Deputy Collector of the same Commission and filed the usual statements in support of their claims - Their cases were duly disposed of and Titt Chand & 29966 & 968 have been issued in their names - 2. The tract of land entered in Cal. 5 - Viz. 76-50 having been confirmed as formed the subject of litigation between in a kind suit between the said radical interest in Cal. 16 and for a Cornhill some of his relatives, no statement Recd of appears to have been filed before No 105 charges the Deputy Collector of the same Commission Commission and have been held to be released for 140% value of land for 10 C. hokams — It is not known how the individuals and Gama & Madhar's share are related the original Grantee. It is however stated the deed of sale that they got the Land by way of gift —

No document is forthcoming about the remaining small tract of their land it appears that it is also made by Nephew's party finally from the time Survey.

The ship was blown under attack on the 27th July 1865 — The parties appeared on the 21st Oct 2.
1866

(True Copy)
