Case No. 2

XX names of the Surs are not given in the oldest available acct. the 2d might be [illegible] the [illegible] from the commencement, & only because the names of the 2d does not appear in the survey acct, I think it should not be a ground for a higher charge. As the 1st has no objection & as the chances of the reversion of the Sum in the case of the 1st are not more remote than in the case of the other, I recommend the Sum of the 2d may be also confirmed rent free for the benefit of the Brahmans.

Nor deeds will be given by his maternal grand father performed the funeral rites of his natural father and succeeded deceased's share. In regard to the debts of the deceased, the Courts have held his son though adopted by his maternal grand father, responsible for their discharge: He therefore succeeded to the share of the deceased. The deceased's daughter raises no objection and has accordingly affixed her signature to the statement filed by his (Sic) brother's son no 2½ in 16 col. The deceased's share is therefore recommended to be confirmed to no 2½ in 16 col son of Sadagopa Chari.

The said Streenivasa Ragava Iyengar sold his 3/4 shares to Bapooraya Iyengar father of No. 24 in 16th Col in 1856 for 75 Rs. ~~divided~~ Deed first of sale is produced on stamp cadjan. The share of No. 24 in 16th Col was ± $1\frac{3}{16}$ of this $1\frac{3}{8}$ was first sold to Rajanatha Iyengar 3/16 punga the share of No. 24 in 16th Col. The share of Ramasawmi Iyengar the father of Nos. 20, 21, 22 & 23 is by division $4\frac{1}{16}$ of ~~that~~ one punga allotted to Sellathammal 1/2 is entered in the name of No. 20 in 16th Col in the Register of F 1258 & the other half share is entered in the Register of F 1258 in her name as per odumbadikai executed by Seshagiri Iyengar brother of Ramasawmi Iyengar.

It appears that Seshagiri Iyengar, husband's brother executed an odumbadikai in Subakiruthu 1842 authorising his sister No. 25 in 16th Col to hold the half share with powers of alienation ~~that~~ odumbadikkai is not forthcoming. On the strength of the alleged odumbadikai the terms of which are not known Sellathammal it would appeared first sold 1/2 share in 1859 to one Streeneevasa Iyengar No. 26 in 16th Col. Deed of sale is produced in plain cadjan. Sellathammal is blind & old. In 1860 Sellathammal entered into a compromise before the Pattukottai Munsif's Court with No. 20 in 16th Col binding herself to hold the half share for life the Deed of sale advanced by No 26 in 16th Col is invalid. It appears to have been executed by Sellathammal to defraud No 20 in 16th Col. It is therefore rejected and the said ½ share is registered in the name of Sellathammal who will have to hold it for life as the daughter's son of Seshagiri Iyengar appears to have a claim to it.
