on account of the minor - Gurusamy Sastry -

5th July 1866, one Arunachalayyan (who was the late guardian of the minor) filed two statements - one for the land inquestion and the other for the Kiraya villages (Inam Register No 430 Case No 4) Those lands he claimed on the minor behalf; but as his title to future was not at all supported by the Civil Court decree either in original suit No 3 of 1863 or 2 of 1864, or from the documents he had produced, his claim thereto was dismissed by Mr Cole, on the 20th April 1867 with an order connect to the following effect -

"His petitioner Arunachalayyan has clearly no title to the Inam land either in Kelays or Thanimangalam villages - the proper parties are Valambal the widow and Gurusamy the minor"

6th As the individual Arunachalayyan who was a guardian to the minor and as such, the plaintiff in the original suit No 2 of 1864 on behalf of the minor, endeavoured to deceive the minor, a notice was sent in the name of the minor himself - This notice was served on him through the Sheristdar of Mayaveram and his signature and that of his present Agent, Venkataramayyan, were taken there - But no statement has been filed on behalf of the minor, till this day -
