the widow of Lakshmiammal No. 7 in col. 15 — 6 — 11 — 3¾ of No. 53 in the same col. & 1-6-14½ of Rangasamy Ayyan. The former Kittakandu [illegible] Rangasamy Ayyan. The Extent sold by them in divisions appears to be what are entered in the names of Nos 30 22 & a portion of the Extent entd in the name of No. 36 all in col. 15. How they got them is not known as the present producers [illegible] the record of purchase executed to them by them. Further the widow (Lakshmi No. 16) of No. 8 in the brother-in-law (No. 21) of No. 22 have preferred any claim to the lands belonging to their family now in the enjoyt of No. 19. [illegible] for all the purchases produced — No. 243 was purchased by the year 1833 the Extent entd in the name of No. 46 in col. 15 & his father in 1832 what appears in the name of No. 47 — [illegible] of sale — No. 22 is [illegible] of No. 11 in col. 15. The Extent entd in No. 22's name is in the enjoyment of No. 21 on mortgage. No. 21 states that he does not know whether this land was purchased or merely received on mortgage as it was done by his [illegible]. As he has failed to [illegible] that he acquired a permanent or hereditary title to the land, & as in the public accts. the Paimash, it is entd as being enjd on mortgage I have now registd it in the name of No. 22 — Nos 23-24-25-26-27-28 are the same as No. 26-31-37-35-29-30 in col. 13 respectively. The [illegible] entd in col. 13 in the name of Krishnammal at Kuthalam [illegible] are now in the enjt of Venkatachariar in the same village. They appear in the Paimash in the name of the latter [illegible] with No. 8 [illegible]. When or how he happened to get the former is not known — but he is in possession for a long time — for before the Paimash. The produce of the share belonging to No. 28 since 1830 are collected by the Collector & held in deposit, as the charity is not maintained. The owners of the Chavadi Chinna Kannan, Lakshmi & [illegible] [illegible] have now come forward with a proposition to resume the charity and rebuild the water pandal. Extract granted to Siva Rama Panditar son of Atmarama Panditar on the 3rd August 1866.

Madr. Revenue Collr. 4 March 1863. No. 462
Explains why he rejected the claim of Atmaram Panditar to be registered jointly with Parasuram Panditar No. 29 in Col. 16 — The remarks of the Dy. Collr. show clearly that the claim must be settled by a Civil Suit only.
Petn. of Atmaram rejected accordingly.

whose son No 9 is contended that his son the above No 9 was adopted by his deceased brother, & Rakkumani Ammal's husband. The widow denied the adoption. The Court Courts wherein a suit was instituted declared that the alleged adoption did not really take place, but decreed to No 9, ½ of the share of the one third share of the said son, in accordance with a deed executed by her, in which she had consented to give away ½ to the individual [illegible] to her in the year 1847 to No 10 — deed of sale produced. The widow disposing of the land has got a daughter married & possessed of children. The extent entd in the name of No 5 in col: 15 was purchased by Rangachari's father in lands of No 11 in col: 16 in the year Durmukhi. The party purchasing disposed of 5/8 to No 4's father in the year 1837 & gave away 1/8 in gift to No 13 his son in law, in whose name he requests that it may be entd. Deeds of sale to Rangachari & No 4's father are produced, & the gift is admitted by the donor. Nos 12 & 13 are sons of No 5 in col: 15. They enjoy the land entd in their father's name with 2 or 3 acres from what is set against the name of No [illegible] of the fields included with No 6, No 5 also had a share — he (No 5) also got some small extent for the item "Gramasamudayam" in col: 15. Deeds of sale for the lands which No 5 is stated in the above named col: to have purchased from two of original grantees are produced & they are of Vibhava & Vikrama. Of the extent entd in col: 15 in No 7 Anantarama's name a portion belongs to No 10 Subbaiyan in the same col: The extents entd in the names of two individuals with a small portion for out of the Grama samudayam constitute what is now in the enjoyt of Nos 22 & 23 — No 23 had as much land as No 22 but the whole of his share was sold at a public auction, & one Sivasubramania Aiyan bidding for it purchased it in the year 1841, as per receipt produced, but he soon afterwards sold it away to No 14. The extent entd in the name of Padmanabhan No 15 in col 16, is in the enjoyt of 3 individuals, himself & Nos 4 & 18. For what these 2 men purchased, deeds of sale are produced. Nos 16 & 17 are own brothers sons of No 12 in col: 15 who purchased the land entd in his name in the [illegible], in the year Krodhana from Padmanabhan. Besides what is entd in his name in col: 15 No 12 had about 60 [illegible] from No 7 Anantarama in adjustment of certain differences in the Grama bhagam shares. Deed for the purchase from Padmanabhan above alluded to is produced. What No 18 enjoys is made up of portions purchased from Padmanabhan in the year Krodhi, from Panjuraiyan No 19 in the year 1844 & from one Anantarama [illegible] who had purchased it in the year [illegible] from Chokkalinga Pillai. [illegible] came into possession by purchase in two instalments from Annamalai, brother of Kailasam No 17 in col: 15. The extent in Kailasam's name [illegible] that sold by his brother Annamalai to Chokkalinga Pillai is in the enjoyt of No 24 Seshappaiyan, the brother's son. Deeds for all the purchases above referred to are produced. Kailasam was not an original Grama bhagam sharer — he acquired the land by purchase previous to the Pymash. No 25 enjoys the extent entd in col: 15 in the name of his grandfather No 15, [illegible] whose land it by gift many years ago for a Gramabhogam share holder. No 26 enjoys by purchase in the 1847 from Panjuraiyan No 19. Deed produced. No 27 enjoys by gift from No 1 made in the year Saumya. Deed of gift produced. No 28 enjoys by gift from the villagers for out of the extent entd as "Gramasamudayam" land. No deed of gift is available — but the villagers admit the gift. Ramaswami Pandit, a brother of No 29, objects entry of his name also along with that of his brother [illegible] he says is undivided. Parasurama Pandit however objects to the claim & alleges that he & his brother [illegible] divided members that more than 30 years ago they separated [illegible] that after [illegible] of [illegible] there [illegible] from about 20 years he returned, finding that his [illegible]

The terms specified having been executed without the conditions being fulfilled No 7 has become master of the Inam pledged. Chikkappaiyan is dead. His brother Krishnaiyan unreasonably objects to the registry of the Inam in the name of No 7 & pleads that he is in possession; from certain bonds granted by No 7's father in the hand of Krishnaiyan himself it appears that the former as the claimant pleads only [illegible] of the land for [illegible]. Besides his one third share referred to No 4 enjoys some lands by purchase from No 8 in col: 15 & from one Rangachari who had purchased the share of No 11 in col 15. What No 7 enjoys was purchased by him together with some [illegible] land in the year Nandana from Vijayaraghavan, son of Lakshmana Aiyan No 4 in col: 15 & admitted to one 1/3 of the extent therein entered. Deed produced. No 8 is brother of the above Lakshmana Aiyan & enjoys 1/3 — the aggregate of the extents in the names of Nos 9 & 10 — belonged to one Rakkumani Ammal, brother's widow of Lakshmana Aiyan, who filled [illegible] remaining
