No. 19 is son of No. 11 in col: 15 & of the extent specified in his name No. 18 had a portion in gift in the year Yuva from one Subbaiyan, & this No. 19 had another given to him in the same way by Krishnaiyan. the above Subbaiyan's brother's deeds of gift are not available but a decree of a civil court in a suit regarding the land so given in gift is produced); the remainder was purchased by No. 18 for Sargalemmurli, an original holder, in the year Vijaya. Deed of sale produced. Beside the extent entd in his father's name No. 19 enjoys A 1-14-4¼ out of that in No. 44 in col: 15's name. This land it would appear belonged to No. 19's family but having been mortgaged with No. 44 it was entd in the Pai[illegible] in the mortgagee's name – being redeemed – it is in the owner No. 19's enjoyment. The fact of the mortgage is not stated in the Paimash – but in the Enumeration of 1258 the circumstance is recorded –. No. 21 is brother of No. 18. he enjoys what was left after the sale to No. 18 – No. 22 purchased in the name of his son the half share of his uncle's daughter-in-law previous to the Paimash – No. 23 enjoys besides the land entd in his name in col: 15, A – 18 – 9½ by purchase made in the year 1838 from Annamaiyan No. 17's brother, & A 1-29-6¼ from [illegible] in the years Vilambi & Subakritu. deeds prod. No. 24 enjoys besides his own land, those entd in the names of Nos 42 & 43 in col: 15 from whom he purchased them – deed of sale executed by the latter in the year Plavanga is prodd. – that of the other is said to be missing – but the son of the party disposing of it admits the sale – No. 25. the land in the enjoyment of this individual is included in the Paimash in the lands belonging to Pichaiyan No. 23, who had it at that time in his possession in mortgage, but it having been subsequently redeemed – is being enjd by the owner. No. 25 is an original Grammabhogam shareholder. No. 26 enjoys by gift, the land entd in col: 15 in No. 24's name, & [illegible] Nos 11, 12, & 13, & A – 6 – 9¼ from out of the land entd as "Common to the Shrotriemdars" in No. 45 – deeds of gift for all the lands but that of No. 24 are produced – the villagers testify to the gift of No. 24's lands – No. 28 is son of No. 26 in col: 15 who had the extent set against his name given as Manjalkani to his wife by her brother in the year Chitrabhanu – deed of gift produced. Besides what is entd in his name, he had also purchased A – 10 – from the husband of No. 13 in col: 16 in the year Durmukhi, & A – 9 – 15 from [illegible] No. 10 in Vilambi – the extent purchased is in the enjt of No. 28 & his uncle No. 29 in equal shares – & what was had as Manjalkani is exclusively held by No. 28 – No. 30 is the same as No. 23 in col: 15. Of the extent entd in his name, I have stated already that [illegible] belonged to No. 25 who had mortgaged it with him – of the rest he gave away in gift in the year Ananda A 1-20-9 to No. 31 his daughter & enjoys the rest himself. this man No. 30 acquired possession by purchase made previous to the Paimash from several individuals. It would however seem he was an original Grammabhogam holder. Deeds prod for the purchases —.

The extent entd in the name of No. 1 col: 15, minus the 2 portions already stated to have been sold by his brother to No. 18, is now in the enjoyment of Nos 32 to 36, of whom Nos 33 & 34 enjoy in addition their share in the above, the A 2-21-6 belonging to [illegible] from whom it was purchased by their father in the year Manmatha – No. 32 is brother of Nos 33 & 34, sons, & No. 35 brother's son of Venkatachalam in [illegible] No. 36's father purchased the land now in his enjt. The sale to No. 18 was made for out of the share of No. 32. The deed of sale to No. 36's father is not produced – but the sale is admitted – The extent entd in col: 15 in No. 13 name was all acquired by purchase from several individuals, previous to the Paimash – deeds to support all the alienations are produced.

No. 37 enjoys a portion of the extent entd in No. 34 in col 15 name from whom [illegible] his father purchased it in the year Vijaya as per deed prod. The remainder of the extent in the above Ramaiyan's name was given by him to No. 38 in the year [illegible] from [illegible] who had enclosed it in [illegible] [illegible] been very ill at Tirupalliyur unable to stir out of his house, but the letter put forward by the claimant is of Kanickam distant by about 11 or 12 miles from Tirupalliyur. The document appears to [illegible] together a fabricated one. The claim is quite unsustained and is therefore rejected. No.49 is the widow of No.40 in col:15 of the [illegible] of her husband the Court having [illegible] No.50 who claimed [illegible] as her adopted son, a putting in [illegible] document [illegible] by No.49 (the adoption was not proved) she enjoys the land. What No.50 & 52 enjoy was purchased from No.40 in col:15 & [illegible] in the year 1847. Deed of sale produced.

No.53 enjoys the land in the name of his grand father No.37 in col:15 together with 3 & 0 acres purchased by his father in 1847 from the above named [illegible] deed of sale prod.

No.39 is one of Cubbaraiyan No.38 in col:15 who acquired the extent specified in his name by purchase in the year [illegible] from two individuals. Deeds of sale produced. No.40 is daughter of No.38 in col:15 who [illegible] No.38 [illegible] alive [illegible] relinquished right to the land in favour of the present holder as he has no other heirs.

No.41 purchased what stands in his name in the year 1842 from [illegible] & had it in [illegible] the year [illegible] from [illegible] No.38 in col:15. This was [illegible] acquired the land by purchase in the year [illegible] deeds of [illegible] produced. No.42 is same as No.35 in col:15. His father [illegible] land [illegible] in his name [illegible] from [illegible] in the year [illegible] Deed of gift produced. The extent entd in No.43 for his father's name (No.32) in col:15 includes [illegible] purchased by his father in the year [illegible] before the [illegible] from [illegible] 2 original [illegible] documents produced. No.44 is son & No.45 brother of No.30 in col:15 [illegible] Venkatappaiyan [illegible] the extent entd in col:15 [illegible] Venkatappaiyan [illegible] the 3 acres entd in [illegible] the name of Ayyanaiyan No.29 from whom No.45 & his father purchased it in the year 1842. Deed of sale produced. No.46 is son of No.27 in col:15. He enjoys [illegible] appears in his father's name [illegible] purchased by his father in the year [illegible] from [illegible] Deed of sale produced. The land in the enjt of No.47 was purchased by his father in the year 1842 from [illegible] in col:15. Deed of sale produced. [illegible] objects to the registry of the land in the name of the purchasers, on ground that a counter agreement was given [illegible] to the effect that if the money were returned within a certain period, the land would [illegible] Subbarayan also produces a letter [illegible] addressed [illegible]

purt. & forwarded through the agent already regd. wherein it is stated that the land shall be returned whenever the money is repaid. No.47 alleges that this letter & the one from the agent forwarding it to Venkatakrishna Aiyar are both forged documents. Comparing the signatures in them with those in a number of other letters received from the same parties by the claimant's father & now put forward by No.47, I find them disagree [illegible] the letter in question [illegible] the month & date are specified without the year. The deed of sale [illegible] of 17th [illegible] from [illegible] produced the agent through whom the letter was received appears to have died in the 3rd [illegible] The letter of the agent forwarding the other letter is of 25th Chittirai. The Chittirai in the letter cannot be any other Chittirai but that [illegible] From letters received by No.47's father from the agent in 1828 [illegible] appears [illegible] in original grantee No. 95 [illegible] from his grandson [illegible] in 1842 a quarter share from Ramasawmy uncle of No. 7 — & in 1833 an one eighth share from Venkammal whose husband had bought it of Baba Rao son of Dada Rao in col. 14 — and this last Rao himself purchased in the name of No. 25, (as he was then holding a Tahsildarship under Government) about 16 Goondas in [illegible] from mother of No. 10, about 11 Goondas in 1853 from No. 1, [illegible] share of [illegible] with the proportion of [illegible] in 1853 from [illegible] [illegible] they had been sold [illegible] by No. 9 from out of Nagoji Rao's original grantee No. 95 share which he (No. 95) father had come into possession, & out of which [illegible] for all disposed of share to the Raja [illegible] the purchases produced. It appears from enquiry that the adoption of No. 25 did not really take place and it is stated that No. 25 who is the son of some distant relation of Kristna Rao's wife was brought up by him from his infancy [illegible] No. 15 is adopted [illegible] whom [illegible] did not [illegible] and irrespective of the parties whom were any claim to it, the title of the daughter is certainly much better & stronger than that of the claimants. No. 24 enjoys a Manaikattu by gift from the mother of No. 23 by whom the gift is admitted —

The share entd. in the name of No. 10 in col. 14 minus the 1/3 which is in the enjoyment of No. 9 & 10 was put up to sale in the year 1833, in execution of a decree of a Civil Court in a suit instituted against [illegible] & descendants of the original grantee for recovery of money due by them — & [illegible] it was purchased in the name of Vitambi for the support of a Dharmasatram built by him. Certificate of Court & deed of sale produced. The son of the purchaser is now enjoying it [illegible] in the name of the Choultry. The [illegible] is entd. to No. 26 —

Which No. 17 & 33 enjoy are Manaikattu & back yard. No. 28 purchased the Manaikattu in his enjoyment in the year Kalayukthi from [illegible] No. 2 — deed produced.

× The Manaikattu of No. 30 was purchased many years ago & in the [illegible] they are entd. in the name of the grandfather of the former & father of the latter.

No. 31 enjoys by purchase made in the year Siddharthi from [illegible] No. 8. deed produced.

That No. 32 enjoys was acquired by purchase many years ago. The name of No. 32's father appears in the [illegible].

Besides which is entd. in its name in Col. 3, No. 34 holds a quarter share by purchase, made by the late Raja, from father of No. 9 — the land sold was from out of this 1/2 share entd. in original grantee No. 85 name which had been purchased by No. 9's family. The deed of [illegible] executed to the Raja is said to be in the palace. The Choultry is managed by Government.

No. 25 [illegible] himself the adopted son of one Kristna Rao who died about five & six months [illegible]

however another arrangement was [illegible] taken in the village [illegible] the 38-6-6, 16-6-„ & 8-„-„ for [illegible] respectively of Wet, Garden & Dry.

[illegible] said [illegible] 21 [illegible] The [illegible] of 2R [illegible] holders with [illegible] changed [illegible] in the [illegible]

The [illegible] which No. 34 belongs to the Palace and it came under Govt. management [illegible] the death of the late Raja. I have not examined all the [illegible] of the T.D.
