55 A[illegible] [illegible] purchased from No 35 [illegible] 56 Kotti [illegible] lands for them [illegible]

been any ill at Tiruppalaiyur unable to stir out of his house, but the letter put forward by the claimant is of [illegible] distant by about 11 or 12 miles from Tiruppalaiyur. The document appears to me to be altogether a fabricated one. The claim is quite unsustained and is therefore rejected. No 49 is brother's widow of No 40 in col. 15 of the [illegible] of her husband the Court having decreed to No 50 who claimed succession as her adopted son, a portion in virtue of a document executed to him by No 49 (the adoption was not proved) he enjoys the same. What No 50 & 52 enjoy was purchased from No 40 in col. 15 & [illegible] brother in the year 1847. Deed of sale produced. No 53 enjoys the extent in the name of his grand father No 37 in col. 15 together with 3 [illegible] acres purchased by his father in 1847 from the above named [illegible] Deed of sale prod.

No 39 is one of [illegible] No 38 in col. 15 who acquired the extent specified in his name by purchase in the year [illegible] public [illegible] two individuals deeds of sale produced. No 40 is daughter of No 35 in col. 15 whose land he enjoys. No 35 brother now alive relinquished right to the land in favour of the present holder he has no other heirs. No 41 purchased what is now in his enjoyment in the year 1842 from [illegible] who had held it on [illegible] in the year [illegible] from [illegible] No 38 in col. 15. This man [illegible] Rao acquired the land by purchase in the year [illegible] Deed of sale produced. No 42 is son of No 35 in col. 15. His father held the land registered in his name [illegible] in the year [illegible] Deed of gift produced. The extent held in No 43's grandfather's name (No 32) in col. 15 including ⅛ of a veli purchased by his father in the year [illegible] from [illegible] [illegible] document produced. No 44 is son & No 45 brother's son of [illegible] Venkatappaiyan No 30 in col. 15. Besides the extent held in Venkatappaiyan's name they enjoy also the 3 [illegible] held in the name of [illegible] No 29 from whom No 45's grand father purchased it in the year 1842. Deed of sale produced. No 46 is son of No 27 in col. 15. He enjoys one [illegible] which appears in his father's name & 2-14-4½ purchased by his father in the year [illegible] from [illegible] [illegible] Deed of sale produced. The extent in the enjoyment of No 47 was purchased by his father in the year 1842 from [illegible] in col. 15. Deed of sale produced. [illegible] son of [illegible] objects to the registry of the land in the name of the purchaser, on ground that a conditional agreement was given [illegible] to the effect that if the money were refunded within a particular period, the land would be his. [illegible] also produces a letter purporting to have been addressed [illegible] the agent through whom the letter was received appears to have died in the 3rd [illegible] The letter from the agent forwarding the other letter is of 25th Chittirai. The Chittirai in the letter cannot be any other Chittirai but that [illegible] From letters received by No 47's father from the agent in 1828 [illegible] appears to have [illegible] sent & forwarded through the agent already referred to wherein it is stated that the land shall be restored whenever the money is repaid. No 47 alleges that this letter & the one from the agent forwarding it to [illegible] are both forged documents. Comparing the signatures in them with those in a number of other letters received from the same parties by the claimant's father & now put forward by No 47, I find them disagree [illegible] the letter in question simply the month & date are specified without the year. The deed of sale is of 17th [illegible] & [illegible] letters produced.
